Cream Of The Jest A Comedy Of Evasions:

The Cream of the Jest James Branch Cabell, 2020-05-15T22:35:17Z The Cream of the Jest is a later entry in James Branch Cabell's Dom Manuel series. The series as a whole is a fantasy series and this entry takes a philosophical turn after the first few chapters of standard high fantasy fare. The narrative pulls out to reveal the point of view of the narrative's author Felix Kennaston. Kennaston's life slowly starts to blur with his fantasy world. He finds himself constantly dreaming of Etarre, a mysterious Beatrice-like figure, but every time he tries to touch her, he wakes up. Soon his neglected wife begins to blur in to Etarre and his increasingly philosophical dream worlds begin to become less distinguishable from his day-to-day life. Though The Cream of the Jest is a kind of capstone to a larger fantasy series, the book itself feels more like philosophy than fantasy. Kennaston's journeys through his dream worlds explore a series of thoughtful threads from the interface of thought and reality to the power of religion to the human condition. This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks.

The Cream Of The Jest A Comedy of Evasions James Branch Cabell, 2025-03 The Cream of the Jest A Comedy of Evasions by James Branch Cabell is a novel centered around the journey of Felix Kennaston, a writer whose life becomes entwined with the realms of his own creative work. The narrative explores the contrast between his mundane existence and the fantastical elements of his imagination, delving into the nature of love, creativity, and reality. Kennaston's world oscillates between the life he leads and the characters he brings to life in his stories, creating a complex web of self-reflection and artistic struggle. Through a blend of medieval romance and philosophical musings, the novel touches on the tensions of nobility, ambition, and the personal challenges that come with the pursuit of art. The story begins with a grand celebration in the fictional land of Poictesme, where themes of love, rivalry, and artistic longing are set into motion. This interplay of reality and fantasy becomes central to Kennaston's internal and external conflicts, forming the heart of the narrative.

The Cream of the Jest James Branch Cabell, 2021-08-03 The Cream of the Jest 1923 is a novel by James Branch Cabell. Set in a world where history and fantasy collide, where a lowly pawnbroker can encounter monsters, gods, and devils, The Cream of the Jest is one work in a series of novels, essays, and poems known as the Biography of the Life of Manuel. Partly inspired by the obscenity trial surrounding his novel Jurgen: A Comedy of Justice, The Cream of the Jest is a metafictional blend of literary criticism and fantasy fiction about an author whose sudden fame shocks his sleepy hometown. To the people of Lichfield, Felix Kennaston is an unremarkable neighbor whose literary ambitions are pursued in secrecy and obscurity. While completing a fantasy novel, he discovers a strange talisman, not unlike the one his hero Horvendile presented to his beloved Ettare. That night, Felix meets Ettare in a dream, inspiring him to rewrite the story's ending. When it is published, charges of obscenity threaten to sink his dreams before they can be realized. But critical attention has the opposite effect, making Kennaston a bestselling author overnight. Told from the perspective of Richard Harrowby, a neighbor from Lichfield, The Cream of the Jest is a fascinating blend of literary criticism and fantasy that poses important questions about the divide between fiction and the world we live in Cabell's work has long been described as escapist his novels and stories derided as fantastic and obsessive recreations of a world lost long ago To read The Cream of the Jest however is to understand that the issues therein the struggle for power the unspoken distance between men and women were vastly important not only at the time of its publication but in our own divisive world With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of James Branch Cabell's The Cream of the Jest is a classic of fantasy and romance reimaged for modern readers
