Creating A New Ireland:

The Revival of Gaelic. An Essay ... Henry Powell Hughes,1905      Making Peace George J. Mitchell,2012-08-08 Fifteen minutes before five o'clock on Good Friday 1998 Senator George Mitchell was informed that his long and difficult quest for an Irish peace accord had succeeded the Protestants and Catholics of Northern Ireland and the governments of the Republic of Ireland and the United Kingdom would sign the agreement Now Mitchell who served as independent chairman of the peace talks for the length of the process tells us the inside story of the grueling road to this momentous accord For more than two years Mitchell who was Senate majority leader under Presidents Bush and Clinton labored to bring together parties whose mutual hostility after decades of violence and mistrust seemed insurmountable Sinn Fein represented by Gerry Adams the Catholic moderates led by John Hume the majority Protestant party headed by David Trimble Ian Paisley's hard line unionists and not least the governments of the Republic of Ireland and the United Kingdom headed by Bertie Ahern and Tony Blair The world watched as the tense and dramatic process unfolded sometimes teetering on the brink of failure Here for the first time we are given a behind the scenes view of the principal players the personalities who shaped the process and of the contentious at times vitriolic proceedings We learn how as the deadline approached extremist violence and factional intransigence almost drove the talks to collapse And we witness the intensity of the final negotiating session the interventions of Ahern and Blair the late night phone calls from President Clinton a last ditch attempt at disruption by Paisley and ultimately an agreement that despite subsequent inflammatory acts aimed at destroying it has set Northern Ireland's future on track toward a more lasting peace

The Quarterly Review William Gifford,Sir John Taylor Coleridge,John Gibson Lockhart,Whitwell Elwin,William Macpherson,William Smith,Sir John Murray (IV),Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron Ernle),1905      Reimagining the Nation-State Jim Mac Laughlin,2001-02-20 This book assesses competing modes of nation building and nationalism through a critical reappraisal of the works of key theorists such as Benedict Anderson and Eric Hobsbawm Exploring the processes of nation building from a variety of ethnic and social class contexts it focuses on the contested terrain within which nationalist ideologies are often rooted Mac Laughlin offers a theoretical and empirical analysis of nation building taking as a case study the historical connections between Ireland and Great Britain in the clash between big nation historic British nationalism on the one hand and minority Irish nationalism on the other Locating the origins of the historic nation in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Mac Laughlin emphasises the difficulties and specificity of minority nationalism in the nineteenth century In so doing he calls for a place centred approach which recognises the symbolic and socio economic significance of territory to the different scales of nation building Exploring the evolution of Irish Nationalism Reimagining the Nation State also shows how minority nations can challenge the hegemony of dominant states and threaten the territorial integrity of historic nations
