Inclusive Schools in Action James McLeskey, Nancy Waldron, 2000-12-15 The nuts and bolts of creating an inclusive school is here in Inclusive Schools in Action Making Differences Ordinary. The authors share their wisdom and practical advice after successfully integrating inclusion into 50 schools. Use their framework developed from their experiences in the field to better meet the academic and social needs of all your students. Authors James McLeskey and Nancy Waldron present a framework that enables teachers and administrators to collaborate as they discuss experience, reflect and apply information on school change and inclusion to their own schools. The change process is based on the authors' belief that inclusive schools cannot be developed from a prescribed model; instead, the school must reflect its own beliefs, attitudes, culture, and skills. The result of this process is that schools that are more responsive to the individual needs of all students. The framework and collaborative reform that McLeskey and Waldron propose considers the attitudes and beliefs of school professionals, clarifies the goals of a local inclusive program, recognizes barriers to reorganizing special and general education instruction, addresses the reasonable concerns of school personnel and parents. Inclusive Schools in Action contains many examples and perspectives from classroom teachers along with figures that present strategies, adaptations, and other practical information. By weaving together their experiences with the research, the authors provide educators with comprehensive information and tools for developing or improving inclusive schools. Creating Inclusive Learning Environments for Young Children Clarissa Willis, 2009 Invites teachers to apply appropriate strategies in classroom environments for young children with special needs, setting the stage for future school success. Toby Karten, Author. Inclusion Strategies That Work. This book helps teachers better understand specific disabilities and intentional support mechanisms that encourage ALL children to learn and grow. It is a resource that I will use for years to come. Kim Hughes, Therapeutic Preschool Teacher, Project Enlightenment, Wake County Public Schools, NC. Research-based techniques to help all children thrive in early childhood settings. More and more frequently, early childhood educators teach children with special needs, yet few have the necessary background knowledge and experiences to meet the challenge of teaching in an inclusive classroom. Creating Inclusive Learning Environments for Young Children gives teachers targeted information, strategies, and activities to address the learning needs of all children, including those at risk. The author provides in-depth information on a variety of disabilities, including autism, vision and hearing loss, communication delays, and sensory integration disorders. Each chapter offers a glossary of terms, a list of suggested resources, and a brief summary of relevant research. Aligned with NAEYC and DEC standards, this engaging and comprehensive resource helps readers create appropriate inclusive environments and establish daily schedules. Build relationships among peers with and without disabilities. Work productively with families, special education teachers, and paraprofessionals. Understand Individualized Education Programs and Response to Intervention. This handbook gives preschool and kindergarten teachers the tools to support all young learners by building relationships and providing positive classroom experiences
