Creating Community Anywhere Carolyn Shaffer, 2005-06 This text provides groups with guidelines for creating effective communication conducting productive meetings making joint decisions and working through conflicts as well as the practical skills needed to set up activities such as celebrations and retreats Creating Community Anywhere Carolyn

Shaffer, Kristin Anundsen, 1993 Describes the community movement discusses new ways of living together and offers practical advice on improving one's own community AmeriCorps*Vista Source, 1998 Superbia! Dan Chiras, Dave

Wann, 2009-03-01 The only book that shows how to transform existing suburbs to create environment and people friendly neighborhoods Leading Communities of Resistance Fred Gibson, 2024-05-31 Leading Communities of Resistance LCOR helps fill a critical void in resistance work developing leaders of radical resistance Communities to protect land waters and life This book is for Deep Green activists radical feminists Elders and those who aspire to taking on leadership roles in service of a living planet LCOR is for activists who understand the dominant culture must be dismantled and replaced by just and sustainable forms of social collectives It also means to equip those who see social and environmental collapse as a real and impending danger with the means to protect and resist the dominant culture Radical Community in its related forms are perhaps the basic standalone means of such resistance LCOR provides knowledge and best practice actionable items resistance based Community builders can leverage The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff, 1993 Illness is a universal experience There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch We are taught to assume health illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well oiled machinery of the body But illness has its own geography its own laws and commandments At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself Duff a counselor in private practice in Taos New Mexico wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us For those who are sick this book offers solace and recognition For those who care for them either physically or emotionally it offers inspiration and compassion Finally this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle tests our limits and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives Resiliency in Action Nan Henderson, Bonnie Benard, Nancy Sharp-Light, 2007 How to build bounce back kids families schools and communities is the theme of Resiliency In Action Practical Ideas for Overcoming Risks and Building Strengths in Youth Families and

Communities It is edited by internationally recognized resiliency expert trainer and consultant Nan Henderson M S W whose publications are used in more than 25 countries The book is a research based practical guide for educators counselors parents community organizers and mentors and is filled with the latest strategies for helping children families schools and communities bounce back from risk stress trauma and adversity More than two dozen experts in the fields of child family organizational and community resiliency contributed to the book which challenges a widely accepted myth about people especially young people who experience risks stress trauma and adversity in their lives according to Henderson Contrary to popular opinion the majority of these individuals over time do bounce back and do well There is a growing body of scientific research from several fields that documents this fact and yields important information as to what can be done every day to facilitate this process of overcoming This book is really three books in one it contains the most recent research hands on and practical strategies and stories of resilient individuals and best practices The book includes 60 chapters grouped in seven sections The Foundations of Resiliency Resiliency and Schools Resiliency and Communities Resiliency Connections Mentoring Support and Counseling Resiliency and Youth Development Resiliency and Families and Resiliency and the Brain

On Creating a Community William Polowniak,1994 Humiliated That s how Anastasia Krupnik feels whenever she tries to climb the ropes in gym class How come everyone else can climb up those hateful ropes Since Anastasia has decided to become a journalist it should be easy to answer most questions Then why can t she understand about Daphne Bellingham s parents divorce And why can t she please Ms Willoughby in gym class Finally Anastasia thinks she has the answers When a team of foreign educators comes to visit her school she plans a big surprise that will amaze her classmates Ms Willoughby and the visitors What will she do when her big moment arrives

Conversations on Community Theory George S. Wood,Juan C. Judikis,2002 Community Theory is a hot topic However most people think about community in terms that are far too simplistic thus failing to understand the complex interrelationships between individuals and communities Each individual has many communities influencing the individual simultaneously Indeed individuals are as much a product of their collective communities as the communities are a product of their collective memberships The concept of belonging to several communities is not a new idea However researchers and practitioners have paid little attention to the impacts of simultaneous membership in diverse communities This book will examine some important questions about community including the following What is a community How can community be defined How does membership in several communities affect our personalities and behaviors How important is community to the individual
