Building a Successful Palestinian State Robert E. Hunter,Seth G. Jones,2006-03-08 Throughout the history of Arab Israeli peace negotiations security has been the most important and most challenging issue for Palestinians Israelis and their neighbors This study examines key external security issues regarding the construction of a Palestinian state Its proposals include a NATO led international peace enabling force and Israeli Palestinian confidence building measures Building a Successful Palestinian State David Gompert,Kenneth Shine,Glenn Robinson,C. Richard Neu,Jerrold Green,2001-04-22 An examination of how an independent Palestinian state if created can be made successful The authors describe options for strengthening governance security economic development access to water health and health care and education and estimate the financial resources needed for successful development over the first decade of independence Building a Palestinian State Glenn E. Robinson,1997 Up to date analysis of grassroots Palestinian politics Islamism and the emerging Palestinian polity The West Bank and Gaza Emile A. Nakhleh,1979 Lordship and Liberation in Palestine-Israel Muhannad Ayyash,2025-07-22 This interdisciplinary book provides timely fresh perspective on Palestine Israel by rethinking the nature of settler colonial sovereignty and the relationship between land and people Muhannad Ayyash argues that this relationship comes in two distinct forms a settler colonial type practiced by the Israeli state that consists of lordship over land and people and a decolonial type seen in Palestinian popular organizing that he calls land as life a reciprocal bond The former is characterized by private ownership possession and violent expulsion of others the latter by communal ownership belonging to the land and opposition to the violence of expulsion Ranging widely across theory and history Ayyash contends that the opposition between these two types is at the core of the Palestinian Israeli struggle The choice before us today he concludes is between the continuation of the Israeli settler colonial project in particular and the project of colonial modernity in general or the commencement of a decolonial age in Palestine Israel and beyond Offering both novel theorizations and politically engaged analysis Lordship and Liberation in Palestine Israel illuminates how decolonial sovereignties represent an alternative to settler colonial violence Palestine in EU and Russian Foreign Policy Malath Alagha,2016-10-04 The establishment of a Palestinian state has long been a strategic objective of EU and Russian foreign policy in the Middle East However over a decade after the creation of the road map the establishment of an independent Palestinian state has still not been achieved Palestine in EU and Russian Foreign Policy uses the school of constructivism to provide a new understanding of EU and Russian foreign policy It explores the failure of these global actors to speed up the process of establishing a Palestinian state despite this being a strategic objective and top priority of their involvement in the Middle East peace process The book then analyses the role of identity and self other perception in the making of EU and Russian foreign policy towards the Middle East peace process It is argued that Palestinian statehood provides a telling empirical example of how and to what extent the search for global actorness as a matter of international identity informs foreign policy making by global actors The book then proceeds to discuss why the EU and Russia are so eager to be involved in initiating a peace settlement Offering a new understanding of foreign policy making by global players in Middle Eastern politics this book will appeal to students scholars and policymakers working in International Relations and European Russian and Middle Eastern studies

Palestinian State Formation Nubar Hovsepian,2009-03-26 This book examines the role of education in building a new Palestinian state and especially on the role and function of the education system in the process of state formation Since education frames a people s identity the nature of the education system affects how Palestinians relate to their state Through education the Palestinian Authority PA transforms the parameters of identity to serve the requirements of state building and the peace process International assistance to the PA affects all of these processes through the disbursement of political rent whose primary function is to bolster the PA and to keep the peace process going The new Palestinian Authority has assumed two seemingly contradictory functions state building and resistance and the dynamic tensions between the two raise key questions for political and policy analysis Are these functions mutually exclusive or complementary in the context of the ongoing peace negotiations and state building Can the Palestinian leadership transform the Palestinian national movement from a revolutionary organization to a pragmatic state apparatus Are the PLO and the PA interchangeable What type of power does the PA need to cultivate the support or to secure the compliance of the Palestinian people for the state building project Clearly the answers to these questions have a direct bearing on the education system Will this system promote a resistance identity or a state building legitimizing identity

Political Decision Making and Non-Decisions R. Ranta,2015-05-05 This book examines Israel s relationship and political decision making process towards the Occupied Territories from the aftermath of the Six Day War to the Labour Party s electoral defeat in 1977 The period represents the first decade of Israel s occupation of the Occupied Territories and the last decade in which the Labour Party was Israel s most dominant political force Arguing that the successive Israeli governments headed by the Labour Party lacked a strategic policy towards the Occupied Territories to address the country s objectives and needs this book demonstrates the detrimental effect this had on Israel on the Middle East in general and on the Palestinian people in particular In addressing key aspects of decision making pathologies this book raises issues which remain important features of Israeli politics today and an analysis relevant for political decision making worldwide

The Legal Case for Palestine Steven E. Zipperstein, 2024-07-31 This book critically analyzes the Palestinian legal arguments against Israeli occupation and in favor of Palestinian statehood For the past two decades Palestinians have chosen to pursue their claims against the Israeli occupation through litigation at the international courts It is therefore appropriate the author contends to analyze the merits of the Palestinian legal claims separately from their political claims To do so the book comprises five parts Part I addresses the role of international law in the conflict as well as Palestinian legal framing and lawfare Part II recounts the relevant legal history including the crucial legal implications of the Oslo Accords Part III analyzes Palestinian legal claims regarding the West Bank and the Gaza Strip Part IV assesses the Palestinian legal case for statehood Part V analyzes Palestinian legal claims regarding Jerusalem Ultimately it is argued that the Palestinian legal case is weak even though the two state solution continues to represent the most viable long term political outcome to the conflict Moreover the author suggests that Palestinian leaders have repeatedly opted for conflict perpetuation through lawfare and violence rather than conflict resolution through negotiation Providing fresh insights into the claims and counterclaims of Palestinian legal arguments the book will appeal broadly to anyone interested in the Israeli Palestinian conflict and international law
