Creation Evangelism For The New Millennium:

Creation Evangelism for the New Millennium Ken Ham, 1999      A Theological Response to and Refinement of Ken Ham's Creation Evangelism for the New Millennium Michael J. Derus, 2001      The Production of American Religious Freedom Finbarr Curtis, 2016-08-02 Americans love religious freedom Few agree however about what they mean by either religion or freedom Rather than resolve these debates Finbarr Curtis argues that there is no such thing as religious freedom Lacking any consistent content religious freedom is a shifting and malleable rhetoric employed for a variety of purposes While Americans often think of freedom as the right to be left alone the free exercise of religion works to produce challenge distribute and regulate different forms of social power The book traces shifts in the notion of religious freedom in America from The Second Great Awakening to the fiction of Louisa May Alcott and the films of D W Griffith through William Jennings Bryan and the Scopes Trial and up to debates over the Tea Party to illuminate how Protestants have imagined individual and national forms of identity A chapter on Al Smith considers how the first Catholic presidential nominee of a major party challenged Protestant views about the separation of church and state Moving later in the twentieth century the book analyzes Malcolm X s more sweeping rejection of Christian freedom in favor of radical forms of revolutionary change The final chapters examine how contemporary controversies over intelligent design and the claims of corporations to exercise religion are at the forefront of efforts to shift regulatory power away from the state and toward private institutions like families churches and corporations The volume argues that religious freedom is produced within competing visions of governance in a self governing nation      Friend of Science, Friend of Faith Gregg Davidson, 2019-11-19 A scientist explores the harmony between Christian faith and science Though some Christians and many skeptics see science and Christianity as locked in a never ending battle geologist Gregg Davidson contends that there is tremendous harmony between Scripture and modern science Many apparent conflicts arise when the Bible is interpreted apart from its literary and historical contexts but when these are taken into account most alleged clashes resolve Proceeding from a belief that Scripture is inspired and without error and that God s creation should inform how we interpret the Bible Davidson shows that Scripture and science need not disagree on issues like the age of the earth Adam and Eve Noah s flood the origin and development of life and numerous related topics Rather Christians can rejoice at how God s glory is revealed in both the Bible and the natural world      The Lie Ken Ham, 2012 Here is the revised expanded and updated edition for the 25th anniversary year Its message of biblical authority is even more relevant today This anniversary edition is an even more powerful eye opening book for the church Ken Ham once again takes the lead in pointing out the looming precipice that thousands of church leaders are rushing toward a denial of the full authority and accuracy of the Bible from its very first verse Originally published in 1987 The Lie took a bold stand which became prophetic Ken warned the church about the destructive effects of compromise with evolutionary millions of years ideas He warned that compromise in Genesis would undermine Scriptural authority in the culture and erode confidence in the infallibility of God's Word Today Christians increasingly doubt the Bible's reliability So then do those who are considering placing their faith in Jesus the Creator The issues are of critical importance when you realize that today we have Christians not only confused when it comes to Genesis and the age of the earth but now even the reality of hell Adam as a real person and Christ's own words about creation marriage and more One compromise just leads to another and it has to end if we want to leave a legacy of faith to future generations
