Borges Oral:

Borges, Oral Jorge Luis Borges, 1979 Borges's Poe Emron Esplin, 2016-03-15 Edgar Allan Poe's image and import shifted during the twentieth century and this shift is clearly connected to the work of three writers from the Rio de la Plata region of South America: Uruguayan Horacio Quiroga and Argentines Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar. In Borges's Poe, Emron Esplin focuses on the second author in this trio and argues that Borges, through a sustained and complex literary relationship with Poe's works, served as the primary catalyst that changed Poe's image throughout Spanish America from a poet-prophet to a timeless fiction writer. Most scholarship that couples Poe and Borges focuses primarily on each writer's detective stories; it refers only occasionally to their critical writings and the remainder of their fiction and deemphasizes the cultural context in which Borges interprets Poe. In this book, Esplin explores Borges's and Poe's published works and several previously untapped archival resources to reveal an even more complex literary relationship between the two writers. Emphasizing the spatial and temporal context in which Borges interprets Poe—the Rio de la Plata region from the 1920s through the 1980s—Borges's Poe underlines Poe's continual presence in Borges's literary corpus. More important, it demonstrates how Borges's literary criticism, his Poe translations, and his own fiction create a disparate Poe who serves as a precursor to Borges's own detective and fantastic stories and as an inspiration to the so-called Latin American Boom. Seen through this more expansive context, Borges's Poe shows that literary influence runs both ways: since Poe's writings visibly affect Borges, the poet, story writer, essayist, and thinker, while Borges's analyses and translations of Poe's work and his responses to Poe's texts in his own fiction forever change how readers of Poe return to his literary corpus. Humanities and Big Data in Ibero-America Ana Gallego Cuiñas, Daniel Torres-Salinas, 2023-11-20 This volume presents the first comprehensive study on the relationship between the Human Sciences and Big Data, with special emphasis on the Ibero-American space. The volume is divided into three parts: theoretical, methodological, and practical, with an interdisciplinary vision that integrates thought, culture, language, literature, theoretical criticism, society, or the use of new bibliometric techniques. Kierkegaard's Influence on Literature, Criticism, and Art Jon Bartley Stewart, 2013 Vol. 2 is dedicated to the use of Kierkegaard by later Danish writers. Almost from the beginning, Kierkegaard's works were standard reading for these authors. Danish novelists and critics from the Modern Breakthrough movement in the 1870s were among the first to make extensive use of his writings. These included the theoretical leader of the movement, the critic Georg Brandes, who wrote an entire book on Kierkegaard, and the novelists Jens Peter Jacobsen and Henrik Pontoppidan. Borges oral Jorge Luis Borges, 1979 Modern Latin-American Fiction Writers William Luis, 1992 A literary and commercial explosion in the 1960s gave Latin American literature instant recognition worldwide, as evidenced in the publication of novels such as Carlos Fuentes's La muerte de Artemio Cruz (The Death of Artemio Cruz) and Gabriel García Márquez's Cien años de soledad (One Hundred Years of Solitude). These works, among others, reflect the local conditions of Latin American countries but also narrate themes which transcend the concerns of any one country and appeal to a broader audience The Latin American authors contained in this volume hail from the Spanish speaking Caribbean Central and South America and Portuguese speaking Brazil They have produced exciting creative innovative and imaginative works that propose theoretical issues which pertain to reading writing spoken language translation history and fiction 30 entries include Ciro Alegria Miguel Angel Asturias Mario Benedetti Jorge Luis Borges Rosario Castellanos Carlos Fuentes Gabriel Garcia Marquez Elena Poniatowska Juan Rulfo and Luisa Valenzuela *California. Court of Appeal (5th Appellate District).
