Bottomline M. A. Sweller, 2007-03-05 Sam Archer a high ranking government official only had one desire in life to be a hero even an unsung one would do He was a well respected man in his right a church going family man and loyal friend A man of moral ethics with a plan to alleviate a burden on society However Sam stepped over the line and ignored a commandment Thou shall not kill Not one murder but thousands He and his cohorts believed they were doing what was necessary Eliminating the overlooked seniors the government took care of financially Ones who had no dependants to count on It was working until greed set in and another expanded the program beyond its original intentions The author hopes you will find the anger tears romance and even a little humor locked in this story but also the wisdom to guard against the possibility of this happening
