Building Economy:

Building Economics Ivor H. Seeley, 1996-11-11 This comprehensively rewritten updated and extended new edition of this established text focuses on what has become the most important single facet of the quantity surveyor's role cost management. The scope of the book has been broadened to take account of the widening and more sophisticated cost management and control service that clients now require. The book examines the factors influencing building costs and how the precontract costs can be estimated analysed and controlled to ensure that buildings can be completed within the agreed budget and timescale and be of acceptable quality function effectively and provide value for money. A new chapter on value management has been added together with an introductory chapter on cost modelling the chapter on life cycling costing is extended while the sections on energy conservation and occupancy costs are expanded. Throughout the text many new case studies with supporting tables and diagrams are included in order to enhance the value of this book to the student and the practitioner.

The Building News and Engineering Journal, 1861 Urban Land Economics and Public Policy Paul N.

Balchin, Jeffrey L. Kieve, Gregory H. Structural Systems Yonca Huro, 2015-09-16 The Tectonics of Structural Systems provides an architectural approach to the theory of structural systems. The book combines structural recommendations to follow during the architectural design of various structural systems and the tectonic treatment of structural recommendations in architecture. Written expressly for students the book makes structures understandable and useful providing practical and useful knowledge about structures a design based approach to the subject of structures and a bridge in the gap between structures and the theory of design. Good architectural examples for each structural system are given in order to demonstrate that tectonics can be achieved by applying technical knowledge about structures. Over 300 illustrations visually unpack the topics being explained making the book ideal for the visual learner The School Executive, 1925 Building Age and the Builders' Journal, 1923
