Building A Dynamic Europe The Key Policy Debates:

Building a Dynamic Europe Jordi Gual i Sole, 2004-01-15 This succinct book provides a broad panorama of the key economic policy challenges facing the European Union today The enlargement of the EU and its lacklustre performance over the last decade in terms of employment and productivity growth have prompted wide ranging calls for economic reform both at the EU level and within member states This volume brings together several leading thinkers in the key areas of policy under discussion ranging from the institutional design of the enlarged EU for efficient policy making to the extent and nature of the integration process in markets such as those of energy and financial services It includes an analysis of the problems of macroeconomic policy co ordination in the EU and an analysis of the reforms in the labour markets and welfare state institutions Timely and authoritative this book is accessibly written and will appeal to a wide policy audience Integrating regulated network markets in Europe, Subsidiarity and Economic Reform in Europe George Gelauff, Isabel Grilo, Arjan Lejour, 2008-04-03 Subsidiarity in the European Union as the guiding principle of decision making close to the people is often motivated and discussed from a predominantly political perspective In this book experts draw the demarcation between national and European policies from an economic viewpoint Insights from economic theory and empirical research are used both to analyse the assignment of policies between the EU and its member states and to identify appropriate levels of decision making Europe, Like America Josep M. Colomer, 2010 Territorial Innovation in Less Developed Regions Filipe Teles, Carlos Rodrigues, Fernando Ramos, Anabela Botelho, 2023-03-11 This book examines the roles of communities in the general framework of territorial innovation particularly in the context of less developed regions With a specific focus on Portugal it offers conceptual improvements that will be of use to other European regions The book will appeal to scholars and students of regional governance and politics from public administration to economics sociology geography and political science as well as to practitioners European Public Opinion and Turkey's Accession: Making Sense of Arguments For and Against, 2007 This paper takes an in depth look at European citizens attitudes towards Turkey s accession to the EU and explains which elements are key in determining support for or opposition to Turkish membership We use new data derived from the new questions measuring citizens attitudes towards Turkey that have recently been introduced in Eurobarometer questionnaires CEPS website The American Economic Review, 2004 Going Europe Or Going Dutch Mendeltje van Keulen, 2006 The European Union has a huge impact on the government and policies of its member states It is thus surprising that the ways in which national governments attempt to shape EU policies is a topic seriously understudied This book discusses relevant academic insights and presents a framework for analysing national interest representation The empirical part discusses the EU policy of the Dutch government throughout the 1990s and presents a reconstruction of the negotiations on two internal market directives It thereby offers both for academics and practitioners a clear oversight of the making of European poliices and the relevant moments and instruments for national interest representation Journal of

Economic Literature ,2006 Poland and Germany in the European Union Elzbieta Opiłowska,Monika Sus,2021-03-19
This book explores the political and social dynamics of the bilateral relations between Germany and Poland at the national and subnational levels taking into account the supranational dynamics across such different policy areas as trade foreign and security policy energy fiscal issues health and social policy migration and local governance By studying the impact of the three explanatory categories the historical legacy interdependence and asymmetry on the bilateral relationship the book explores the patterns of cooperation and identifies the driving forces and hindering factors of the bilateral relationship Covering the Polish German relationship since 2004 it demonstrates in a systematic way that it does not qualify as embedded bilateralism The relationship remains historically burdened and asymmetric and thus it is not resilient to crises This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European and EU Politics German politics East Central European Politics borderlands studies and more broadly for international relations history and sociology The European Union in Search of Narratives François Foret,2024-12-31 This book examines the legitimization of the European Union through the development and rapid rotation of narratives aiming to convey its identity and purpose Utilizing literature and data across a wide range of interdisciplinary areas rarely studied together the book argues that three narratives have been dominant over the last 20 years Europe of rights Europe of values and a European way of life It presents both theoretical and empirical research on the transformation of political domination collective identities and EU legitimization and analyses various crises linked to socio economic security identity and normative issues such as terrorism and radicalization pandemics and morality politics It finds that European narratives express lower ambitions on charismatic community building are constantly expanding to new domains and are increasingly framed as being in a situation of existential threat which may increase democratic tensions and give rise to a populist backlash This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European integration European Parliament legitimization studies political communication and to comparative politics and political sociology Global Networks and European Actors George Christou,Jacob Hasselbalch,2021-05-30 This book examines the ability of the EU and European actor networks to coherently and effectively navigate manage and influence debates and policy on the international stage It also questions whether increasing complexity across a range of critical global issues and networks has affected this ability Engaging with the growing theoretical and conceptual literature on networks and complexity the book provides a deeper understanding of how the European Union and European actors navigate within global networks and complex regimes across a range of regulatory policy cooperation and foreign and security policy issue areas It sheds light on how far they are able to respond to and shape solutions to some of the most pressing challenges on the global agenda in the 21st century This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of EU European and global networks and more broadly to European and EU studies Global Governance International Relations International Political Economy and Foreign Policy and Security Studies State and Market in a Globalized World Detlef Junker,Wilfried Mausbach,Martin Thunert,2009

Papers of a conference held October 5 8 2006 in Heidelberg The Intangible Economy Impact and Policy Issues Clark Eustace,2001 The 21st century business landscape is often characterised as old economy plus the Internet As a metaphor this has the appeal of simplicity but is misleading Today the pursuit of competitive advantage requires a radical shift of mindset away from our old world business models and practices The clarity of 20th century markets was based on a system of fixed boundaries with one to one trading relationships linear value chains and balance sheet accounting concepts The economy today operates increasingly without fixed boundaries and this has far reaching implications for companies financial markets public institutions and regulators At the corporate level the search for new modes of competitiveness has opened the way for visionary entrepreneurs to exploit intangible investment in previously unforeseen ways This has led to profound changes in company performance thresholds The key assets of corporations are no longer natural resources machinery or even financial capital but intangibles R D and proprietary know how intellectual property workforce skills world class supply networks and brands Information and communication technologies ICT continue to play an indispensable role in the business economy both as an infrastructure and a carrier that migrates concepts processes and practices across all sectors The latest generation of web based technologies is bringing about profound changes in the structure and behaviour of global markets as well as their core activities of innovation production and distribution As a result we are seeing a wholesale disaggregation of the value delivery systems in many sectors of the economy Index to Legal Periodicals & Books ,2006 IUI Yearbook ,2005 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004 Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),2006 ECSM2014-Proceedings of the European Conference on Social Media Asher Rospigliosi,Sue Greener, International Encyclopedia of Human Geography ,2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography Second Edition Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender race nationality location and other factors in other words the things that make people and places different Questions of for example politics economics race relations and migration are introduced and discussed through a geographical lens This updated edition will assist readers in their research by providing factual information historical perspectives theoretical approaches reviews of literature and provocative topical discussions that will stimulate creative thinking Presents the most up to date and comprehensive coverage on the topic of human geography Contains extensive scope and depth of coverage Emphasizes how geographers interact with understand and contribute to problem solving in the contemporary world Places an emphasis on how geography is relevant in a social and interdisciplinary context
