

RHEOLOGY SERIES

Advisory Editor: K. Walters, Department of Mathematics, University College of Wales, Aberystwyth, U.K.

- Vol. 1 Numerical Simulation of Non-Newtonian Flow (Crochet, Davies and Walters)
- Vol. 2 Rheology of Materials and Engineering Structures (Sobotka)
- Vol. 3 An Introduction to Rheology (Barnes, Hutton and Walters)

The photograph used on the cover shows an extreme example of the Weissenberg effect. It illustrates one of the most important non-linear effects in rheology, namely, the existence of normal stresses. The effect is produced, quite simply, by rotating a rod in a dish of viscoelastic liquid. The liquid in the photograph was prepared by dissolving a high molecular-weight polyisobutylene (Oppanol B200) in a low molecular-weight solvent of the same chemical nature (Hyvis O7, polybutene). As the rod rotates, the liquid climbs up it, whereas a Newtonian liquid would move towards the rim of the dish under the influence of inertia forces.

This particular experiment was set up and photographed at the Thornton Research Centre of Shell Research Ltd., and is published by their kind permission.

Recent Advances in Parallel Virtual Machine and Message Passing Interface Jack Dongarra, Peter Kacsuk, Norbert Podhorszki, 2003-06-26 Parallel Virtual Machine PVM and Message Passing Interface MPI are the most frequently used tools for programming according to the message passing paradigm which is considered one of the best ways to develop parallel applications This volume comprises 42 revised contributions presented at the Seventh European PVM MPI Users Group Meeting which was held in Balatonfured Hungary 10-13 September 2000 The conference was organized by the Laboratory of Parallel and Distributed Systems of the Computer and Automation Research Institute of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences This conference was previously held in Barcelona Spain 1999 Liverpool UK 1998 and Cracow Poland 1997 The first three conferences were devoted to PVM and were held at the Technische Universit t M nchen Germany 1996 Ecole Normale Superieure Lyon France 1995 and University of Rome Italy 1994 This conference has become a forum for users and developers of PVM MPI and other message passing environments Interaction between those groups has proved to be very useful for developing new ideas in parallel computing and for applying existing ideas to new practical fields The main topics of the meeting were evaluation and performance of PVM and MPI extensions and improvements to PVM and MPI algorithms using the message passing paradigm and applications in science and engineering based on message passing The conference included four tutorials and five invited talks on advances in MPI cluster computing network computing grid computing and SGI parallel computers and programming systems

Formal Approaches to Agent-Based Systems Michael G. Hinchey, James L. Rash, Walter F. Truskowski, Christopher A. Rouff, 2005-01-25 The 3rd Workshop on Formal Approaches to Agent Based Systems FAABS III was held at the Greenbelt Marriott Hotel near NASA Goddard Space Flight Center in April 2004 in conjunction with the IEEE Computer Society The first FAABS workshop was held in April 2000 and the second in October 2002 Interest in agent based systems continues to grow and this is seen in the wide range of conferences and journals that are addressing the research in this area as well as the prototype and developmental systems that are coming into use Our third workshop FAABS III was held in April 2004 This volume contains the revised papers and posters presented at that workshop The Organizing Committee was fortunate in having significant support in the planning and organization of these events and were privileged to have world renowned keynote speakers Prof J Moore FAABS I Prof Sir Roger Penrose FAABS II and Prof John McCarthy FAABS III who spoke on the topic of self aware computing systems auguring perhaps a greater interest in autonomic computing as part of future FAABS events We are grateful to all who attended the workshop presented papers or posters and participated in panel sessions and both formal and informal discussions to make the workshop a great success Our thanks go to the NASA Goddard Space Flight Center Codes 588 and 581 Software Engineering Laboratory for their financial support and to the IEEE Computer Society Technical Committee on Complexity in Computing for their sponsorship and organizational assistance

Modeling with Rules Using Semantic Knowledge Engineering

Grzegorz J. Nalepa,2017-10-04 This book proposes a consistent methodology for building intelligent systems It puts forward several formal models for designing and implementing rules based systems and presents illustrative case studies of their applications These include software engineering business process systems Semantic Web and context aware systems on mobile devices Rules offer an intuitive yet powerful method for representing human knowledge and intelligent systems based on rules have many important applications However their practical development requires proper techniques and models a gap that this book effectively addresses

Building Automation and Digital Technologies Shahryar Habibi,2022-03-17

Building automation systems and digital technologies are highly relevant for the environmental and energy performance of buildings However a clear gap remains between architectural engineering and the use of such technologies Building Automation and Digital Technologies shows how to assimilate automation and digital technologies into making buildings smarter and more environmentally sustainable This book shows why architects need smart and digital systems in building design and construction and promotes innovative technological tools for improving sustainability It focuses on the development of automated environmental conditions and how new technology informs architectural engineering The book also provides new evidence on the impact of building automation systems and digital technologies such as the Internet of Things artificial intelligence and information and communication technology for developing a performance based approach to the environmental sustainability of buildings and provides a key reference for architects on how digital technology can inform their practice Its four chapters cover developing strategies for improving sustainable and smart buildings architectural practice and construction technology creativity and innovation in building automation systems and the use phase of buildings Building Automation and Digital Technologies meets a critical need for a sustainable and smart built environment from an architectural perspective providing an important reference to architects and professionals in related fields by demonstrating the assimilation of the latest information and automation technologies Puts forward an architectural perspective on the design and construction of smart sustainable buildings Presents the use of digital technologies for design and construction Bridges the gap between architectural engineering and the use of automation and digital technology Considers the development of automated environmental conditions and new technology
