Building The Christian Academy:

Building the Christian Academy Arthur Frank Holmes, 2001 Until Relatively Recently the history of higher education in the West was the story of a Christian academic tradition that played a major role in both intellectual history and the history of the church Over the last one hundred years however we have witnessed the progressive secularization of higher education George Marsden goes so far as to suggest that the American university has lost its soul But what was that putatively Christian soul Precisely what in the Christian tradition has now been lost And what should we know about that tradition as a condition of practical wisdom for the present

The Idea of a Christian College Arthur Frank Holmes, 1987 More than ten years after its publication in 1975 The Idea of a Christian College has become in the prophetic words of Nicholas Wolterstorff a classic a standard Widely used by students lay readers teachers and administrators it provides a concise case for the Christian college and defines its distinctive mission and contribution This revised edition is Holmes response to the many professors and students who have read the work enthusiastically and urged the author to clarify certain ideas and to address further aspects of the overall subject The author has extensively revised several chapters has eliminated one gender language and has included two new chapters Liberal Arts as Career Preparation and The Marks of an Educated Person Back cover

Shaping Character Arthur Frank Holmes, 1991 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable The teaching of ethics and the transmission of values once performed an integrative function in the Christian college curriculum however they have gradually become relegated to a subspecialty status within the philosophy or religion department Arguing that ethics is everybody s business Arthur Holmes presents in this book a concise survey of moral education its goals and methods in the Christian college Arising out of a three year Christian College Consortium project Shaping Character reflects the insights of a rich variety of experts writers and faculty members Holmes first orients his readers to the present ethical climate to theological dimensions and distinctive in ethics and to moral development theory He then poses three overall objectives of ethics education forming the conscience making moral decisions and developing character and fleshes out each objective with particular goals Throughout the book Holmes makes suggestions about the role of faculty and staff paying special attention to teaching methods and noting the context and dynamics of college life in general The final chapter summarizes how the Bible functions in ethics Shaping Character is meant for all Christian college teachers professors and administrators concerned about student values and the moral condition of our society The book will serve as a valuable and practical guide for teaching ethics in every department

The Idea of a Christian College Arthur F. Holmes, 1987-03-06 This revised edition of a classic text provides a concise case for the role of the Christian college and its distinctive mission and contribution Holmes has extensively revised several chapters and included two new chapters Liberal Arts as Career Preparation and The Marks of an Educated Person
