Buddhist Book Illuminations Pratapaditya Pal, Julia Meech, Julia Meech-Pekarik, 1988 Buddhist Book Illuminations Pratapaditya Pal, Julia Meech, Julia Meech-Pekarik, 1988 Buddhist Cosmology: Science and Theology in the Images of Motion and Light W. Randolph Kloetzli, Randy Kloetzli, 1989 Disagreements concerning the nature and extent of the universe constitute a focus of theological debate which permeates buddhism at every level While there have been numerous attempts to catalogue the details of the Buddhist cosmologies none has attempted a general interpretation of their underlying intention This work attempts to begin the process of interpreting the major phases of Buddhist Cosmological speculation by seeing in them various dramas of salvation tailored to the philosophical and theological predilections of their respective traditions To a large extent this interpretation relies on an examination of continuities between the Buddhist cosmologies and those of the hellenistic world as a whole In the course of this study two major cosmological traditions emerge those which rely on metaphors of time and those which rely on metaphors of space The former are associated with the Hinayana and the latter with the Mahayana forms of Buddhism Each draws on images of motion and light to articulate its vision of the drama of salvation Silent Illumination Guo Gu, 2021-03-09 Our natural awakening or buddha nature is inherent within all of us and waiting to be realized Buddha nature has the qualities of both silence and illumination and by working with silent illumination meditation you can find your own awakening Distinguished Chan Buddhist teacher Guo Gu introduces you to the significance and methods of this practice through in depth explanations and guided instructions To help establish a foundation for realizing silent illumination he has translated twenty five teachings from the influential master Hongzhi Zhengjue into English accompanied by his personal commentary This book will be an indispensable resource for meditators interested in beginning or deepening their silent illumination practice The Dynamic Spread of Buddhist Print Culture Shih-shan Susan Huang, 2024-11-04 This comprehensive study explores the dynamic spread of Buddhist print culture in China and its Asian neighbors It examines a vast selection of Buddhist printed images and texts not merely as static cultural relics but holistically within multicultural contexts related to other cultural products and as objects on the move transmitted across a sprawling web of transnational networks Buddhist Book Roads The author applies interdisciplinary and network approaches developed in art history religious studies digital humanities and the history of the print and book culture to shed new light on Buddhist print culture from visual textual social and religious perspectives Illuminations Sa-skya Paṇḍi-ta Kun-dga'-rgyal-mtshan, 1988 Illumination Rebecca Li, 2023-10-31 A modern guide to the transformative practice of silent illumination from Chan Buddhist teacher Rebecca Li Silent illumination a way of penetrating the mind through curious inquiry is an especially potent accessible and portable meditation practice perfectly suited for a time when there is so much fear upheaval and sorrow in our world It is a method of reconnecting with our true nature which encompasses all that exists and where suffering cannot touch us The practice of silent illumination is simple allowing each moment to be experienced as it is in order to manifest our innate wisdom and natural capacity for compassion It can be integrated into all aspects of daily life and is meaningful for secular and Buddhist audiences new and seasoned meditators alike After guiding readers through the history and practice of silent illumination Rebecca Li shows us how we can recognize and unlearn our modes of operation habits of mind that get in the way of being fully present and engaged with life Cultivating clarity on the empty nature of these habits offers us a way to unlearn and free ourselves from unhelpful modes such as harshness to self perfectionism quietism striving for spiritual attainment and more Illumination offers stories and real life examples references to classic Buddhist texts and insights from Chan Master Sheng Yen to guide readers as they practice silent illumination not just on their cushions but throughout their lives Buddhist India ,1927
