   Building Java enterprise applications Brett McLaughlin,       Building Java Enterprise Applications: Architecture Brett McLaughlin,2002 This is the advanced complete and practical guide to building complex Java Enterprise Applications from the ground up and learning design issues along the way Beyond showing how to write the code the book covers what happens when it s time to deploy it on various servers      Building Enterprise Java Applications 2. Web Applications. Brett McLaughlin,2002-11      Developing Enterprise Java Applications with J2EE and UML Khawar Zaman Ahmed,Cary E. Umrysh,2002 The Java 2 Platform Enterprise Edition J2EE TM offers great promise for dramatically improving the way that enterprise applications are built and organizations that have adopted the J2EE are gaining a competitive advantage The industry standard Unified Modeling Language UML has helped countless organizations achieve software success through visual modeling Together the UML and J2EE form a powerful set of tools but the intricacies involved with using them in tandem are considerable While UML is highly effective for specifying designing constructing visualizing and documenting software systems J2EE offers enterprise developers a simplified component based approach to application development However when using the two technologies together developers must first consider and attempt to reconcile the different characteristics of each Developing Enterprise Java Applications with J2EE TM and UML examines the best ways to jointly leverage these technologies Exploring concrete methods for completing a successful development project the authors cover the use of UML and J2EE in detail Using practical examples and a case study they illustrate the pros and cons of specific design approaches show how personal experience can affect design decisions and demonstrate proven approaches for building better software faster With this book as a guide developers will be able to overcome the challenges in using UML and J2EE together and be on their way to building robust scalable and complex applications 0201738295B09042001
