Desert Quotes:

Blades of Grass in the Desert Jan Morgan, 2022-07-18 Several years have passed since the old plantation style mansion at 1324 Blessing Path was lovingly restored but the mysterious old place is apparently still calling the shots Years ago when it was discovered that the house had supernatural tendencies two retired ladies set out on a quest to determine its history Tracing its lineage from central Texas to Charleston South Carolina they uncovered a love story worthy of comparison to Gone with the Wind and eventually realized that there were plans for the structure that had been set in place as far back as 1950 This time however events lead one of the ladies not to the east coast but to the deserts of west Texas where she befriends a beautiful young woman from Guatemala Wondering whether their meeting was serendipitous Jamie returns to Sweet Grass Memories the name given the House and shares a handwritten letter with Ms G that the young woman gave her the last time they spoke The letter together with a photograph of a lone boat on the shore of the Rio Grande lead the two of them Reid Tracy and the kids of the House on another adventure one that rivals any television docudrama The story winds its way from the dry blowing sand of west Texas into Mexico and finally returns to the estuaries and humidity of Charleston South Carolina and its indomitable Gullah people People whose ancestors endured like blades of grass pushing through concrete endured and sang songs about faith and hope as they journeyed toward freedom Just like the Gullah peoples during the slave era today many others endure Walking or riding northward through deserts they journey toward a different kind of freedom freedom from devastating drought and hunger and freedom to live again in places that are absent the perils associated with trying to survive where malevolence thrives English Letters and Letterwriters of the Eighteenth Century Howard Williams, Jonathan Swift, Alexander Pope, 1886

Blitzkrieg to Desert Storm Robert Michael Citino,2004 When Germany launched its blitzkrieg invasion of France in 1940 it forever changed the way the world waged war Although the Wehrmacht ultimately succumbed to superior Allied firepower in a two front war its stunning operational achievement left a lasting impression on military commanders throughout the world even if their own operations were rarely executed as effectively Robert Citino analyzes military campaigns from the second half of the twentieth century to further demonstrate the difficulty of achieving decisive results at the operational level Offering detailed operational analyses of actual campaigns Citino describes how UN forces in Korea enjoyed technological and air superiority but found the enemy unbeatable provides analyses of Israeli operational victories in successive wars until the Arab states finally grasped the realities of operational level warfare in 1973 and tells how the Vietnam debacle continued to shape U S doctrine in surprising ways Looking beyond major power conflicts he also reveals the lessons of India s blitzkrieg like drive into Pakistan in 1971 and of the senseless bloodletting of the Iran Iraq War Citino especially considers the evolution of U S doctrine and assesses the success of Desert Storm in dismantling an entrenched defending force with virtually no friendly casualties He also provides one of the first scholarly analyses of Operation Iraqi Freedom showing that its plan was curiously divorced from the realities of military history grounded instead on nebulous theories about expected enemy behavior Throughout Citino points to the importance of mobility especially mobilized armor in modern operational warfare and assesses the respective roles of firepower training doctrine and command and control mechanisms Brimming with new insights Citino s study shows why technical superiority is no guarantee of victory and why a thorough grounding in the history of past campaigns is essential to anyone who wishes to understand modern warfare Blitzkrieg to Desert Storm provides that grounding as it addresses the future of operational level warfare in the post 9 11 era In the Desert Lisle March Phillipps,1909 Fire in Relation to Primitive Agriculture and Grazing in the Tropics Harley Harris Bartlett,1955 The Emu ,1909 Lost Desert Bonanzas Eugene L.
