THE DESIGNATED MOURNER

Directed by David Hare

Designated Mourner

Anne Brener

Designated Mourner:

The Designated Mourner Wallace Shawn, 1997 Woven out of three monologues this is a drama about the self politics and the pursuit of aesthetic subtleties in brutal times The three characters are the eponymous designated mourner Jack his wife Judy and Judy s erudite father Howard Despite a passionate bond with her father Judy is drawn to Jack whose taste in cultural forms follows a disturbing path When Jack abandons both Judy and Howard he continues his riveting societal free fall into a world of gleeful savagery The designated mourner, 2000, 1999 Performed by Miranda Richardson David de Keyser Mike Nichols Originally released in 1997 The feature film version of Wallace Shawn s successful play which was first staged by David Hare at London s Royal National Theatre with Mike Nichols in the leading role of Jack The play has now been created anew for the screen by the same cast writer director and designer The American Play Marc Robinson, 2009-01-01 In this brilliant study Marc Robinson explores more than two hundred years of plays styles and stagings of American theater Mapping the changing cultural landscape from the late eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first he explores how theater has and has not changed and offers close readings of plays by O Neill Stein Wilder Miller and Albee as well as by important but perhaps lesser known dramatists such as Wallace Stevens Jean Toomer Djuna Barnes and many others Robinson reads each work in an ambitiously interdisciplinary context linking advances in theater to developments in American literature dance and visual art The author is particularly attentive to the continuities in American drama and expertly teases out recurring themes such as the significance of visuality He avoids neatly categorizing nineteenth and twentieth century plays and depicts a theater more restive and mercurial than has been recognized before Robinson proves both a fascinating and thought provoking critic and a spirited guide to the history of American drama Writing Wrongs W. Davies King, Wallace Shawn, 1997 Wallace Shawn usually appears in our mind s eye as the consummate eccentric actor the shy literature teacher in Clueless the diabolically rational villain in The Princess Bride or as the eponymous protagonist of Vanya on 42nd Street Few of us realize however that Shawn is also one of today s most provocative and political playwrights Writing Wrongs The Work of Wallace Shawn is a close and personal look into the life and literary work of the man whom Joseph Papp called a dangerous writer As the son of the late William Shawn renowned editor of The New Yorker Wallace Shawn was born into privilege and trained to thoroughly liberal values but his plays relentlessly question the liberal faith in individualism and common decency In an uncompromising way that is all his own Shawn registers the shock of the new In works such as Aunt Dan and Lemon My Dinner with Andr and The Designated Mourner he wrenches out of place all of the usual comfortable mechanisms by which we operate as audiences Perhaps our discomfort and struggle to understand a play might provoke some change in the way we see ourselves and behave in relation to others but Shawn offers little in the way of solace W D King s incisive critiques of the plays and inquiry into the life and times of their author develop a portrait of Shawn as a major figure in contemporary theater Author note William Davies King is Associate Professor of Dramatic Art at the University of California Santa Barbara and the author of Henry Irving's Waterloo Theatrical Engagements with Arthur Conan Doyle George Bernard Shaw Ellen Terry Edward Gordon Craig Late Victorian Culture Assorted Ghosts Old Men War and History which won the 1993 Joe A Callaway Prize for Best Book on Theatre Intimate Letters Bruce Whiteman, 2014-10-01 The poetics of love loss and desire Intimate Letters comprises the seventh book of an ongoing long poem in prose called The Invisible World Is in Decline Its title borrows from a string quartet by Leo Janáček a profoundly emotional piece written late in the composer's life when he had fallen in love with a younger woman It also points towards the intimacy of letters themselves the visible pieces that make up language This collection begins with love poems then moves to a section Wretched in This Alone dominated by loss The Invisible Ghazals which follow take language and emotions more deeply into a sense of dispossession a landscape of the heart characterized by feeling unmoored Desire the final poem and the only piece in conventional poetic lines attempts to rescue the heart from bleakness by proposing that passion does survive even the most difficult and demanding experiences and runs through our days like music The Methuen Drama Guide to
