Desires Song:

Desire by Gender and Genre in Trouvère Song Helen Dell, 2008 Unspoken desire in trouvère song This study brings the songs of the trouvères to an encounter with Lacanian psychoanalytic theories of signification sexual difference and unconscious desire In trouvère song desire functions as a means of generic and genderic differentiation The trouvères distinguished between sexual need or lust and desire the latter usually confined to the masculine voice in high style Less exalted persons in whose company women were already implicitly included appear as incapable of desire in the fin amors register Critics have treated the issue of desire as represented in the courtly chanson but because criticism has followed the trouvères distinction between desire and need discussion of desire has been limited to songs in the courtly register rather than across the system of genres Desire in Lacan's sense that is unconscious desire is present in all genres and voices and this book unearths the unspoken desires of trouvère song by an attention to the characteristic means by which subjects subvert their demands in different genres HELEN DELL is a research fellow in English Literary Studies in the School of Culture and Communication University of Melbourne Womanist Wisdom in the Song of Songs Abi Doukhan, 2019-10-31 Belonging to Hebrew Wisdom literature the Song of Songs offers a fresh look at love and relationships through its main female character the Shulamite which profoundly differs from traditional religious approaches to love and sexuality Drawing from exegetical as well as philosophical sources Abi Doukhan follows the Shulamite's journey away from patriarchy to her own self-individuation as she discovers a wisdom of love that is deeply personal and feminine God, Desire, and a Theology of Human Sexuality David H. Desire and Mental Health in Christianity and the Arts David Torevell, 2023-08-21 This book considers the connection between the world of mental health in the twenty first century and the traditional concept of desire in Christianity and the Arts It draws parallels between the desire for rest from anxiety among mental health sufferers with the longing for peace and happiness in Religion and the Arts The author presents Biblical philosophical and theological insights alongside artistic ones arguing that desire for rest remains at the heart of spiritual living as well as mental health recovery The chapters draw from historical and contemporary voices including Plato Augustine of Hippo Julian of Norwich Gerard Manley Hopkins Simone Weil Samuel Beckett Tennessee Williams Jean Louis Chr tien Eric Varden and others The study demonstrates why longing continues to fascinate and grip individuals creative endeavour and society at large not least in the development of the understanding of mental health It is valuable for scholars and advanced students of Christian theology and those interested in spirituality and the arts in particular *Catalogue of the Allen A.
