Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister

Outside Barry Lopez,2014-02-24 The six stories in Outside show Barry Lopez s majestic talent as a fiction writer Lopez writes in spare prose but his narratives resonate with an uncanny power With a reverence for our exterior and interior landscapes these stories offer profound insight into the relationships between humans and animals creativity and beauty and ultimately life and death In Desert Notes the narrator says All my life I have wanted to trick blood from a rock The story proceeds to instruct the visitor on how to experience the desert but continues like no ordinary field guide At stake here is what is at the furthest edge of our grasp You will think you have hold of the idea when you have only the hold of its clothing Rattlesnakes the shell of a beetle a few twigs silence out of these spare elements Lopez conjures a realm that shimmers with an elusive but palpable presence The Search for the Heron and Within Birds Hearing present encounters with animals that are imbued with spiritual and often inexplicable exchanges In solitary almost visionary episodes the narrators pass into permeable realms of nature recalling a time when humans and animals spoke the same language Lopez s gift is to imagine a reality where humans can be so embedded in the natural world that the boundaries between inner and outer fall away Again and again whether describing a Navajo rug possessing the essence of its maker or a boy who can change places with his half coyote dog named Leaves or a teacher whose presence brings into question the meaning of friendship Lopez portrays elemental and sacred places His prose transcends its simplicity to enter spaces of wonder and mystery As James Perrin Warren says in his compelling introduction Lopez s narrators bear witness to extraordinary patterns and purposes The storyteller is vital to the community and to a healthy landscape but the vital relationship is also reciprocal We participate along with Lopez in the long history of storytelling We become part of the atmosphere in which wisdom shows itself Barry Moser s eleven otherworldly densely layered engravings accompany the text Each provides a meditative experience that parallels Lopez s complex sense of our relationship to nature An afterword by Lopez closes this dramatically original collaboration Outside brings together Barry Lopez best known for his National Book Award winning Arctic Dreams Barry Moser the publisher of Pennyroyal Press whose reputation as a book artist printmaker designer and artist is legendary and the widely published James Perrin Warren a professor of English at Washington and Lee University to offer an abundance of riches for readers and lovers of fine books

Other Country James Perrin Warren,2015-12-03 The award winning American environmental writer Barry Lopez has traveled extensively in remote and populated parts of the world Lopez s fiction and nonfiction focus on the relationship between the physical landscape and human culture posing abiding questions about ethics intimacy and place Other Country presents a full scale treatment of Lopez s work James Perrin Warren examines the relationship between Lopez s writing and the work of several contemporary artists composers and musicians whose works range from landscape photography painting and graphic arts to earth art ceramics and avant garde music The author demonstrates Lopez s role in creating this community of artists who have led cultural change and shows that Lopez's writing and his engagement with the natural world creates an other country by redefining boundaries rediscovering a place and renewing our perceptions of landscapes Warren's critique examines manuscripts and typescripts from the 1960s to the present interviews with Lopez conducted from 2008 to 2013 and interviews with artists Part 1 focuses on the relationship between Lopez's storytelling which he calls a conversation with the land and Robert Adams's landscape photography For both Lopez and Adams a worthy artistic expression serves the cultural memory of a community reminding us how to behave properly toward other people and the land Part 2 looks at the collaborative friendship of Lopez and visual artist Alan Magee tracking the development of Lopez's short stories through a consideration of Magee's career Part 3 moves farther afield discussing Lopez's relationship to Richard Long's earth art Richard Rowland's ceramics and John Luther Adams's soundscapes Other Country reveals the dynamic relationships between Lopez considered by many the most important environmental writer working in America and the artistic community who seek to explore the spiritual and ethical dimensions of an honorable and attentive relationship to the land and thus offer profound implications for the future of the planet

The Land's Wild Music Mark Tredinnick, 2011-04-14 The Land's Wild Music explores the home terrains and the writing of four great American writers of place Barry Lopez Peter Matthiessen Terry Tempest Williams and James Galvin In their work and its relationship with their home places Tredinnick an Australian writer searches for answers to such questions such as whether it's possible for a writer to make an authentic witness of a place how one captures the landscape as it truly is and how one joins the place in witness so that its lyric becomes one's own and enters into one's own work He asks what it might mean to enact an ecological imagination of the world and whether it might be possible to see the work and the writer as part of the place itself The work is a meditation on the nature of landscape and its power to shape the lives and syntax of men and women It is animated by the author's encounters with Lopez Matthiessen Williams and Galvin by critical readings of their work and by the author's engagement with the landscapes that have shaped these writers and their writing the Cascades Long Island the Colorado Plateau and the high prairies of the Rocky Mountains Tredinnick seeks the spring of nature writing deep in the nature of a place itself carried in a writer's wild self inside and resonated over and over again at the desk until it is a work in which the place itself sings
