Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape:

Desert Quartet Terry Tempest Williams, 1995 Beautifully illuminated with drawings and paintings by noted artist Mary Frank Williams one of the West's most intense and lyrical writers invokes the lure and drama of the landscape This is an incandescent meditation in word and image on the physical vastness and beauty of the desert and the spiritual place one woman finds for herself there "Landscapes of Seduction Boyd Petersen, 2002 Like the Song of Songs Terry Tempest Williams's Desert Quartet submerges its reader in a highly erotic landscape And both use that landscape a garden in the Song and a desert in Desert Quartet to create eros in the text Yet while the Song of Songs uses metaphor to transform the body of the beloved into a garden of delights Desert Quartet uses personification to transform the desert landscape into a passionate lover In the Song of Songs the body becomes the landscape where seduction takes place in Desert Quartet the landscape becomes the body which seduces Both works also invite allegorical readings however the one represents pre modern allegory and the other post modern allegory Finally both texts mirror the landscape they describe The reader must wander through the texts in the same way the texts wander through the settings natural terrain Neither has a coherent linear plot nor argues a monolithic point Perhaps this meandering discourse is as some feminist critics would argue indicative of women's ways of seeing and speaking ways that often make men uncomfortable New Essays in Ecofeminist Literary Criticism Glynis Carr, 2000 The present volume gathers new essays in ecofeminist literary criticism and theory that extend this critical trajectory for ecocriticism in the context of social eco feminist theory and practice BOOK JACKET Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language Terry Tempest Williams talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind in a set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin to represent the span of her career as a naturalist author and activist A Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about
