Charters, Ronald J. Hilton, 1989-01-01

International and Comparative Studies in Adult and Continuing Education Regina Egetenmeyer, Vanna Boffo, Stefanie Kröner, 2020-11-10 This volume gives theoretical and practical insights in international and comparative research in the field of adult and continuing education The 16 contributions of this volume give three perspectives on international and comparative adult education The first perspective focuses on the question how internationalisation and comparative adult and continuing education can be taught The second perspective gives insights into the results of comparative research that has been conducted throughout a two week Winter School that took place in February 2019 in Würzburg The third perspective complements the two perspectives with insights into international projects and practices in adult and continuing education The authors of this volume are contributing to the transnational Winter School International and comparative studies in adult and continuing education in Würzburg Germany since 2014 Adult Learning in Modern Societies Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Elina Kilpi-Jakonen, Daniela Vono de Vilhena, Sandra Buchholz, 2014-06-27 As industrial societies increasingly evolve into knowledge based economies the importance of education as a lifelong process is greater than ever This comprehensive book provides a state of the art analysis of adult learning across the world and with Adult Education Peers F. Robert,2013-08-21 This is Volume II of twenty eight in a series on the Sociology of Education Originally published in 1958 this is a comparative study of adult education in that starts with a historical review of the provision in England before 1850 between the Wars and beyond as well as delving into the characterises and personality of the adult student The author s travels to the United States Germany the West Indies Australia the Middle East Scandinavia India China and East Africa extends the study with examples of these countries and systems All of which has convinced the author that educational problems for the future must be regarded as world problems and this applies in particular to the problems of adult education It is in this latter field that we have most to learn from each other and in the process most to contribute to international understanding Essential Readings in International and Comparative Adult Education Jost Reischmann,2021-06-01 Often in international comparative studies it is difficult to refer to older basic texts because they are hidden in old publications difficult to locate This book makes a selection of such old but essential texts available and wants to document the long history of the international comparative perspective Standing on the shoulder of giants allows not only a grounded look back but hopefully also a reliable and experience based look in the future The editor of this book Jost Reischmann Prof em Bamberg University Germany has a long history in international and comparative adult education He presented papers on conferences around the world from San Diego USA to Seoul Korea When the International Society for Comparative Adult Education ISCAE was founded in 1992 he became the first president and developed this society over many years We hope this new book will help old timers and new comers to contribute to the enriching world of international comparative adult education Comparing adult education worldwide [Von] Alexander N.
