Comparing Regionalisms Implications For Global Development:

Comparing Regionalisms B. Hettne, A. Inotai, O. Sunkel, 2001-10-16 Comparing Regionalisms summarizes the UNU WIDER international research project on the formation of world regions and what implications this process will have for the future world order particularly as far as the important issues of peace and development are concerned This last volume in a series of five focuses on comparative research covering all important regions of the world Comparative studies are seen as the next step in regional analysis Acknowledging the enormous variety of regional formations the contributors nevertheless argue that a comparative approach to the dynamics of regionalization will provide important knowledge not only about the regions in question but also about the emerging world order The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism Tanja A. Börzel, Thomas Risse, 2016-02-04 The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism the first of its kind offers a systematic and wide ranging survey of the scholarship on regionalism regionalization and regional governance Unpacking the major debates leading authors of the field synthesize the state of the art provide a guide to the comparative study of regionalism and identify future avenues of research Twenty seven chapters review the theoretical and empirical scholarship with regard to the emergence of regionalism the institutional design of regional organizations and issue specific governance as well as the effects of regionalism and its relationship with processes of regionalization The authors explore theories of cooperation integration and diffusion explaining the rise and the different forms of regionalism The handbook also discusses the state of the art on the world regions North America Latin America Europe Eurasia Asia North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa Various chapters survey the literature on regional governance in major issue areas such as security and peace trade and finance environment migration social and gender policies as well as democracy and human rights Finally the handbook engages in cross regional comparisons with regard to institutional design dispute settlement identities and communities legitimacy and democracy as well as inter and transregionalism Comparative Regionalism Fred H. Lawson, 2017-03-02 Regionalism has regained momentum in the post Cold War era New economic groupings continue to spring up across the globe while older regional organizations have strengthened their institutional bases and broadened their scope Explaining the reinvigoration of regionalism requires comparative analyses that not only highlight the commonalities that characterize various regional experiments but also account for the differential outcomes and divergent trajectories such projects exhibit This collection of seminal articles on regionalism advances theoretical concepts that can stimulate useful comparisons along with scholarly surveys of important instances of regionalism in the contemporary world Besides classic studies of the European Union the volume includes authoritative overviews and case studies of regionalist projects in East Asia Sub Saharan Africa Latin America the Middle East and Central Eurasia An introductory essay situates these articles in the context of the five decade long research program on regional integration theory Sub-regionalisms in the European Union: Bridge-builders or spoilers? Anna-Lena Kirch, 2021-09-14 In today s interconnected differentiated and polarized European Union sub regional groupings between the national and EU level are a highly relevant empirical phenomenon Despite their importance the interactions between sub regionalisms and EU actors and processes remain under researched This book fills this large research gap by applying a systematic comparative approach Taking into account a huge corpus of empirical data gained through expert interviews and document analysis this study provides the conceptual and empirical groundwork necessary to better understand EU sub regionalism For the timeframe between 2009 and 2018 it analyses the scope of sub regional cooperation in the Baltic Benelux and Visegr d groupings Moreover it compares their respective institutional design political identity foreign policy as well as their external recognition by EU actors A special focus lies on their role in six EU policy cases including EU budget negotiations TTIP the drafting process of the EU Global Strategy refugee relocation quotas the revision of the posted workers directive and defence cooperation through PESCO In its conclusion this book identifies two sub regional archetypes functional hubs and political tools While differing in many regards the shared assessment finds that the overall bridge building efforts of the Baltic Benelux and Visegr d sub regionalisms exceed their spoiling potential

The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism

European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò, 2016-04-22 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century and the second edition adding inter regional relations this new edition focuses on competing models of regional cooperation within a multipolar world and the role of European Union This new edition offers A comparative analysis of regional cooperation and of both US centred and EU centred interregionalism A fresh exploration of key issues of regionalism versus globalization and the potential for world economic and political governance through regional cooperation notably in hard times A vigorous response to conventional wisdom on the controversial EU international identity An appendix on regional and interregional organizations A key resource for postgraduate or undergraduate study and research of international relations European integration studies comparative politics and international political economy Taking into account both the expanded European Union and regional cooperation in every continent this multidisciplinary volume comprises contributions from established scholars in the field A Gamble P Padoan G Joff G Therborn Th Meyer R Higgott B Hettne F Ponjaert F Soederbaum Ch Deblock K Eliassen A Arnottir S Keukeleire I Petrova S Santander and M Tel editor Global Politics of Regionalism Mary Farrell, Bjorn Hettne, Luk Langenhove, 2005-08-20 Textbook on regionalism and its role in a global marketplace ideal for students of IR and globalisation Indonesia and the ASEAN Free Trade Agreement Alexander C. Chandra, 2008-01-01 Chandra provides a political economic analysis of the dynamic relationship between ASEAN economic integration and Indonesian nationalism This book is suitable for those interested in contemporary Southeast Asian affairs Development Agendas and Insights World Institute for Development Economics Research, Anthony F. Shorrocks, 2005 This publication reviews twenty years of research undertaken by the World Institute for Development Economics Research of the United Nations University UNU WIDER into economic development issues covering a wide range of topics such as poverty and inequality globalisation and trade development finance conflict and governance transition to a market economy and economic development in Africa Regionalization in a Globalizing World Michael Schulz, Fredrik Soderbaum, Joakim Öjendal, 2001-05 The emerging role of regional systems of relations is an important feature of the new global politics While the European Union is the most advanced case most other parts of the world display at least the beginnings of regional systems Using a multidisciplinary approach the contributors examine these processes from a comparative perspective concentrating on the following questions what constitute a region how is the historical process of region formation unfolding what motives and factors underlie this drive to regionalisation what forms a regional awareness and institutionalisation are emerging and where what are the future prospects The New Regionalism Björn Hettne, András Inotai, 1994 The European Union and the Global South Fredrik Söderbaum, Patrik Stålgren, 2010 The development of coherent and effective relations with other regions and countries is one of the most challenging tasks faced by the European Union This original volume explores the EU s engagement with the global South focusing on three controversial policy areas economic cooperation development cooperation and conflict management A discussion of the EU s interregional model which promotes interaction with regions rather than nation states provides a backdrop for case studies of EU policies with regard to Africa Asia and Latin America While disclosing the tensions and overlaps between the EU s foreign policies and those of its member states the authors also highlight an increasing trend toward successful policy coordination Political Economy and the Changing Global Order Richard Stubbs, Geoffrey R. D. Underhill, 2006 Covering the basics necessary for a course in international political economy IPE this text comes from a non American critical perspective and the contributors are drawn from prominent scholars of IPE around the world The Rise and Fall of Interregionalism in EU External Relations Alan Hardacre, 2009

International Relations Studies Series 9 International Studies Library 20 The proliferation of regionalism in recent decades has led to increased relations between regional groups in different parts of the world and the European Union EU has been central to the development of this new interregional phenomenon This book sets out to analyse the rise and fall of interregionalism in EU external relations by looking at how the EU has strategically pursued interregionalism over time and at how this has subsequently worked in practice The EU in the 1990s strategically employed interregionalism in Africa Asia and Latin America and this book takes the specific case of Latin America to chart the course of EU interregionalism Table of Contents Introduction The Rise and Fall of Interregionalism The Case of the European Union and Latin America Chapter 1 Interregionalism in the Global Political Economy Chapter 2 The European Union And Interregionalism Chapter 3 The European Union Complex Interregional Model In Latin America Chapter 4 European Union Mercosur Relations The Seeds Of The Fall Of Interregionalism Conclusions The Rise and Fall of Interregionalism in EU External Relations Bibliography 1 Primary Sources 2 Interviews 3 Secondary Sources Appendices This volume makes a significant contribution to our understanding of the ways in which the European Union engages with other regions in the global arena Its original framework based on the analysis of complex inter regionalism provides a strong focus for evaluation of the multi level processes that have emerged from the EU s pursuit of regional partnerships and its detailed empirical study of EU relations with Latin America is a model of the ways in which such work should be carried out The book will be useful not only to academics and students working in this area but also to policy makers in a variety of contexts Mike Smith at the University of Loughborough About the Author s Editor s Alan Hardacre Ph D in International Relations Loughborough University is a Lecturer at the European Institute of Public Administration in Maastricht the Netherlands He has published in the areas of EU External Relations Better Regulation and Lobbying in the EU Politeia ,1998 English and Afrikaans with abstracts in English Journal of Economic Literature ,2002 Macro- and Micro-regionalism in the Historical Geography of the Pacific Rim Dianne Elizabeth Meredith,2003 UNU/WIDER Publication Catalogue World Institute for Development Economics Research,2003 Globalization Demystified Severine Mushambampale Rugumamu,2005 Globalization Demystified is a study that offers a critical re examination of Africa s perverse integration into the global capitalist system It presents a historical analysis of how various encounters between structurally unequal economies societies and institutions have continuously shaped the continent s past and contemporary plight of exploitation marginalization exclusion and abject poverty for the majority of its people BOOK JACKET Security and Development in Southern Africa Nana Poku,2001-04-30 Provides a detailed analysis of the ongoing politico economic transformation of Southern Africa
