Compassion And Solidarity The Church For Others:

Compassion and Solidarity Gregory Baum,1992 In the forthright style that has earned him a reputation for controversy theologian Gregory Baum presents the new Faith and Justice movement in the churches especially the Roman Catholic Church together with the considerable opposition to it He discusses why many Christians are becoming activists turning their faith into deeds by working for the liberation of the poor not only in South America and the Third World but in Canada as well He argues for a new ecumenism permitting a more representative opinion within the Church and in a larger sense for what he believes are the fundamentals of a just society He says that there is a new realization that God is on the side of the oppressed and that Christians are here to help in the struggle for liberation Compassion and Solidarity Gregory Baum,CBC Enterprises,1987 Compassion and Solidarity: The Church for Others. 1992 Canadian Broadcasting Corporation,1992

The Black Church Studies Reader Alton B. Pollard,Carol B. Duncan,2016-04-29 The Black Church Studies Reader addresses the depth and breadth of Black theological studies from Biblical studies and ethics to homiletics and pastoral care The book examines salient themes of social and religious significance such as gender sexuality race social class health care and public policy While the volume centers around African American experiences and studies it also attends to broader African continental and Diasporan religious contexts The contributors reflect an interdisciplinary blend of Black Church Studies scholars and practitioners from across the country The text seeks to address the following fundamental questions What constitutes Black Church Studies as a discipline or field of study What is the significance of Black Church Studies for theological education What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and the broader academic study of Black religions What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and local congregations as well as other faith based entities The book s search for the answers to these questions is compelling and illuminating Missionalia ,2008

Theology After Christendom Joshua T. Searle,2018-02-14 Christianity must be understood not as a religion of private salvation but as a gospel movement of universal compassion which transforms the world in the power of God s truth Amid several major global crises including the rise of terrorism and religious fundamentalism and a sudden resurgence of political extremism Christians must now face up fearlessly to the challenges of living in a post truth age in which deceitful politicians present their media spun fabrications as alternative facts This book is an attempt to enact a transformative theology for these changing times that will equip the global Christian community to take a stand for the gospel in an age of cultural despair and moral fragmentation The emerging post Christendom era calls for a new vision of Christianity that has come of age and connects with the spiritual crisis of our times In helping to make this vision a reality Searle insists that theology is not merely an academic discipline but a transformative enterprise that changes the world Theology is to be experienced not just behind a desk in an armchair or in a church but also in hospitals in foodbanks in workplaces and on the streets Theology is to be lived as well as read Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana David Stiles-Ocran,2022-10-21 This book explores the kinds of Christian service or diaconia that develop in non institutionalized practices for supporting survivors of indigenous ritual servitude or Trokosi in Africa Drawing on empirical research from Ghana it examines the possibilities of freedom equality and dignity for liberated Trokosi and the manner in which these women s experiences constitute a repudiation of dominant patriarchal family systems With close attention to the work of indigenous parachurches which function outside of institutionalized churches in challenging the contemporary practice of ritual slavery and offering its survivors a lived space in which they need not remain hidden as they seek restoration and integration into wider society Ritual Servitudes and Christian Social Practices in Ghana will appeal to scholars of sociology theology and religion with interests in gender contemporary ministries and African religion For God and My Country J. J. Carney,2020-10-27 A devout Catholic politician assassinated by a capricious dictator A Cardinal standing up for his people in the face of political repression A priest leading his nation s constitutional revision The Mother Teresa of Uganda transforming the lives of thousands of abandoned children Two missionaries who founded the best community radio station in Africa A peace activist who has amplified the voices of grassroots women in the midst of a brutal civil war Such are the powerful stories in For God and My Country a book that explores how seven inspiring leaders in Uganda s largest religious community have shaped the social and political life of their country Drawing on extensive oral research J J Carney analyzes how personal faith theological vision and Catholic social teaching have propelled these leaders to embody Vatican II s call for the Church to be a sign of communion and unity in the world Readers will gain rich insight into Uganda s postcolonial politics and the history of one of Africa s most important Catholic communities Each chapter closes with leadership lessons and reflection questions making this an ideal text for classroom and parish adoption Confessing the Faith Douglas John Hall,1996 Confessing the Faith is the third volume of a trilogy in which Hall rethinks the foundational doctrinal areas of Christian systematic theology in the light of the specifics of North American history and culture Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb,Mark A. Lamport,2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue

Fagan,1998-04 This is the first study to present Jon Sobrino s theology of evangelization The work shows Sobrino s theological method in action in his christology and ecclesiology Dr Fagan provides a comprehensive historical picture of the Latin American church s journey to evangelization and Sobrino s place in that journey

Suffering Well and Suffering With Aimee Patterson,2023-09-12 We live in a society that has little tolerance for suffering Suffering is not only unpleasant Profound innocent suffering can upend our sense of identity Yet we push suffering people to the periphery to avoid an uncomfortable truth We are all subject to suffering In a time when Christian churches suffer the loss of authority influence and membership Patterson challenges the idea that we need such power to live on earth as in heaven Only God can transform suffering into joy Drawing on her experience with cancer Patterson claims Christians hold certain responsibilities while we wait for this transformation Revisiting the story of Job she confronts the problem of suffering and what it takes to suffer well This sets the scene for what a fleshy wounded Jesus Christ calls us to do use suffering to build compassionate relationships with others who suffer

Contested Hospitalities in a Time of Migration Synnøve Bendixsen,Trygve Wyller,2019-10-28 This book explores the duality of openness and restriction in approaches to migrants in the Nordic countries As borders have become less permeable to non Europeans it presents research on civil society practices that oppose the existing border regimes and examine the values that they express The volume offers case studies from across the region that demonstrate opposition to increasingly restricted borders and which seek to offer hospitality to migrant One topic is whether these practices impact and transform the Nordic Protestant trajectory The book considers whether such actions are indicative of new sensibilities and values in which traditional categories and binaries are becoming less relevant It also discusses what these practices of hospitality indicate about the changing relationship between voluntary organizations and the Nordic welfare states in the time of migration As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and religious studies with interests in migration civil society resistance and social values
