of conciliarity in the Orthodox Church after the 19th century when the Enlightenment and Romantic philosophy challenged the traditional hierarchical structure of the Church promoting a new theological consciousness where the Church was seen as an organic community rather than a pyramidal body. Featuring almost 50 chapters written by the most prominent scholars in the field from a wide range of geographical, ethnic, and confessional backgrounds, The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Conciliarity in Modern Orthodox Christianity explores the radical reforms to church life that resulted from the Moscow Church Council (1917-1918), the emergence of eucharistic ecclesiology, the evolution of Greek and Slavic theologies, and their impact within and beyond the Orthodox world, as well as expressions of conciliarity at the initiative of the laity. Through a well-balanced selection of case studies, the volume aims to show how the rise of new forms of assembly and community has characterized not simply the Eastern and Oriental Orthodox churches (Egypt, Ethiopia, Armenia, and India) but Orthodoxy in contemporary 20th-century contexts of migration and mission, such as Africa, the US, and Western Europe.

Cumulated Index to the Books, 1999. Reflections on Character and Leadership by Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries, 2010-04-09. Reflections on Character and Leadership is the first of the three books in the Manfred Kets de Vries on the Couch series. Here Kets de Vries looks at entrepreneurship, the pathology of leadership, and the personality of the leader. The reader will visit the disturbed inner worlds of leaders like Alexander the Great, Shaka Zulu, and Robert Maxwell, discover how to distinguish between a cold fish and a live volcano, and identify impostors, despots, organizational fools, and global leaders. The book highlights the basic principles of the clinical paradigm, the process of putting organizations and the individuals who lead them on the psychoanalyst's couch. It includes studies of personality archetypes and the effects they have on organizational life and culture, and the effects that organizations have on them. Referring frequently to key management concepts, Kets de Vries looks not only at what happens when things go wrong but also at how to create the psychological and organizational space to make sure that things go right. About the series: The series offers an overview of Kets de Vries's work spanning four decades, a period in which he has established himself as the leading figure in the clinical study of organizational leadership. The books in this series contain a representative selection of Kets de Vries's writings about leadership from a wide variety of published sources and cover character and leadership in a global context, career development, and leadership in organizations. The original essays were all written or published between 1976 and 2008. Updated where appropriate and revised by the author, they present a digest of the work of one of the most influential management thinkers of the present day.

American Book Publishing Record, 1999. Cases on Restraint of Trade: Competition by Bruce Wyman, 1902. Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies by Richard L. Abel, Hilary Sommerlad, Ole Hammerslev, Ulrike Schultz, 2022-05-05. This book presents an invaluable collection of essays by eminent scholars from a wide variety of disciplines on the main issues currently confronting legal professions across the world. It does this through a comparative analysis of the data provided by the reports on 46 countries in its companion volume, Lawyers in 21st Century Societies Vol 1 National Reports (Hart, 2020). Together these volumes build on the seminal collection Lawyers in Society Abel and Lewis 1988a 1988b 1989 The period since 1988 has seen an acceleration and intensification of the global socio economic cultural and political developments that in the 1980s were challenging traditional professional forms Together with the striking transformation of the world order as a result of the fall of the Soviet bloc neo liberalism globalisation the financialisation of capitalism technological innovations and the changing demography of lawyers these developments underscored the need for a new comparative exploration of the legal professional field This volume deepens the insights in volume 1 with chapters on legal professions in Africa Latin America the Islamic world emerging economies and former communist regimes It also addresses theoretical questions including the sociology of lawyers and other professions medicine accountancy state production the rule of law regional bodies large law firms access to justice technology casualisation cause lawyering diversity gender race and masculinity corruption ethics regulation and legal education Together with volume 1 it will inform and challenge conceptions of the contemporary profession and stimulate and support further research

The Films of Makhmalbaf Eric Egan, 2005 This book examines the close and volatile relationship between a highly popular art form the production of culture and the politics of power in society Through a critical analysis the book reveals the social and political context of Iran's national cinema under the Islamic Republic It tracks the emergence of Iranian cinema since the Islamic Revolution as Makhmalbaf one of Iran's most influential filmmakers and a committed artist whose work is provocative and never far from controversy sought to engage the dramatic social and political upheavals that have taken place over the past twenty four years Makhmalbaf's films have always been reflexive meditations on the nature of cinema and art within a society and Makhmalbaf's art as part of that system provides a view of film as an extension of its political environment

The New Golden Retriever Marcia R. Schlehr, 1996 The Golden Retriever has become a multipurpose dog an ideal family companion a hunting partner to help bag and conserve game and a top notch competitor for both Obedience and Field Trials As a result the Golden Retriever is a breed that has experienced a steady increase in popularity from World War II to the the present day

Essays in Political Theory: Democracy and power Brian Barry, 1991 Democracy, Power, and Justice Brian Barry, 1989 Bringing together a selection of twenty one major articles and essays by renowned political theorist Brian Barry this collection presents his theories of how social institutions ought to work as well as how they actually do work and elucidates the connections between the two kinds of theory The book includes an introduction that explains the context within which each essay was written and a discussion of subsequent developments that are relevant to its arguments
