ABSTRACT

Healthy Competition among various business organizations in an industry is one of the prerequisites to rise the business volumes, turnover and required profits by adjusting the four elements of marketing mix (4Ps) those are Product, Price, Place and Promotion. Competition is perceived as an advantageous state not only to the marketer or service provider or manufacturer but also to the customer by promoting his autonomy. Competitive pressure is a struggle that one firm undergoes to articulate its ideal marketing position so as to win the hearts of its customers. As we are all aware that today there is a transition takes place at the market that majority of organizations turning from product orientation to customer orientation. You may be good at providing qualitative product or service to your targeted customer but the same has to fulfil the needs, tastes and preferences of your customers. A competitive person or a firm is more eager to be successful than other people. For commercial purpose, effective managers used to monitor the competition as well as their organizational dynamics regularly at the market place.

The prominence of customer satisfaction compromises when a firm augments bargaining power and does not exhibit firmness. Specifically, an individual's opinion is positively framed when a product or service fulfil his desire as anticipated. It is negatively framed when a product or service accomplishes weakly than expected.

INTRODUCTION

Competitive pressure is the stress an individual or a business firm feels when competing with other to attain edge or to realize a business aim that is obtainable only to the front-runner. Competition is used to describe situations or activities in which people or organizations compete with each other to obtain the maximum share of the business cake. A fervent is eager to be more successful when compared to other players. In economics, competition is the healthy war between sellers striving to reach out to the objectives such as customer satisfaction, increasing profits, market share, sales volumes, long-term relationship with customers and increasing customer loyalty by adjusting the four elements of the marketing mix those are Product, Price, Place and Promotion. Merriam-Webster explains competition in a commercial place as "the effort of two or more parties to

The Concept of Representation Hanna F. Pitkin, 2023-04-28 Being concerned with representation this book is about an idea a concept a word It is primarily a conceptual analysis not a historical study of the way in which representative government has evolved nor yet an empirical investigation of the behavior of contemporary representatives or the expectations voters have about them Yet although the book is about a word it is not about mere words not merely about words For the social philosopher for the social scientist words are not mere they are the tools of his trade and a vital part of his subject matter Since human beings are not merely political animals but also language using animals their behavior is shaped by their ideas What they do and how they do it depends upon how they see themselves and their world and this in turn depends upon the concepts through which they see Learning what representation means and learning how to represent are intimately connected But even beyond this the social theorist sees the world through a network of concepts Our words define and delimit our world in important ways and this is particularly true of the world of human and social things For a zoologist may capture a rare specimen and simply observe it but who can capture an instance of representation or of power or of interest Such things too can be observed but the observation always presupposes at least a rudimentary conception of what representation or power or interest is what counts as representation where it leaves off and some other phenomenon begins Questions about what representation is or is like are not fully separable from the question of what representation means This book approaches the former questions by way of the latter This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1972 Being concerned with representation this book is about an idea a concept a word It is primarily a conceptual analysis not a historical study of the way in which representative government has evolved nor yet an empirical investigation of the behavior The Imaginary Witness Morton Schoolman,1980 Michigan Governmental Studies ,1958 British Books in Print ,1985 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1967 The Lawmakers James David Barber,1965 American Democracy: Theory and Reality Robert Weissberg,Mark V.
