Competitiveness In Small Developing Economies Insights From The Caribbean:

Competitiveness in Small Developing Economies Alvin G. Wint, 2003 Possibly no group is more conscious of the challenges created by the increasing integration of markets for capital labour products and information than small developing economies Policy makers from these economies have sought a two track response to this integration One response lies in increasing lobbying efforts for these economies to be accorded special or more equitable treatment in market integration discussions The second response lies in improving the competitiveness of their economies It is this second response that provides the subject matter for this book It explores the challenges and opportunities associated increasing competitiveness in small developing economies based on research conducted in the Caribbean The topics covered indicate the breadth of activity that is required to enhance competitiveness At the macro policy level the book explores the key drivers of competitiveness examines the role of exchange rate regimes and of government policy considers the implications sovereignty and assesses the extent to which competitiveness likely to be improved by attracting foreign direct investment

Measuring Competitiveness in the World's Smallest Economies Ganeshan Wignaraja, 2008-05 Attempts to measure competitiveness CP across countries have typically neglected the world's smallest economies Hence a simple composite index the Small State Manufactured Export CP Index or SSMECI was developed to benchmark industrial CP The SSMECI represents the first attempt to provide a comprehensive picture of the CP performance of small states The performance of small states varies across geographical regions income groups country size classes High performing small states had better macroeconomic conditions higher levels of foreign investment more trade openness better levels of education modern infrastructure A coherent market oriented CP strategy in small states is vital to success on international markets Tables WTO at the Margins Roman Grynberg, 2006-12-14 At a pivotal point in the history of the WTO when development issues are at the heart of negotiations how the larger and more powerful members address the legitimate concerns of its poorest and most vulnerable members will shape the perception of the institution throughout the century This book aims not only to document almost ten years of experience of small states with the WTO but also to explain this experience It takes an evidential theory approach to explaining the features characteristic to the trade and economic development of small island states It then highlights the issues of concern to these states in relation to negotiations at the WTO The experience of the African Caribbean and Pacific ACP countries with the WTO dispute settlement mechanism is discussed and the book ends with a discussion of key negotiating issues for the island states and institutional arrangements to facilitate reform Economic Transformation of Jamaica Ricardo Anderson, Luz Longworth, 2016-09-12 This book is a compilation of important contributions from noted scholars articles derived from JAMPRO's Jamaica Investment Forum 2015 written by members of the UWI Mona WJC faculty as well as significant presentations from the policy makers who form the government of Jamaica Importantly this work focuses on examining the centrality of policies coupled with innovation in the transformation of Jamaica as the place to live raise families and do business as espoused by the Vision 2030 national development plan This joint work highlights the fundamental role that JAMPRO as the key agency for promoting Foreign Direct Investment in Jamaica plays in the thrust for economic growth and development Importantly we highlight some key contributors to the progress we have made in Jamaica through cases of home grown multinationals such as the Grace Kennedy and Company Limited LASCO Kingston Wharves Limited Sandals ATL Group while further noting areas that with continued thrust and the right policies can fast track our transformation The key areas identified are Logistics Agriculture ICT BPO outsourcing and Manufacturing This book provides a valuable contribution to the literature on economic transformation examining the history current and new paradigms for the future in order to fast track the economic transformation of Jamaica Globalization, Trade, and Economic Development R. Bernal,2013-12-18 This is the most in depth study of the economic partnership between the European Union and the CARIFORUM countries a group of fifteen small developing economies in the Caribbean The CARIFORUM EU Economic Partnership Agreement EPA is the first trade agreement of its kind as it is a new type of WTO compatible trade agreement between a group of developed countries and a group of developing countries As a principal negotiator for CARIFORUM Bernal s qualifications allow him to provide a unique perspective on the increasingly important topic of trade and economic development in the midst of globalization Globalization Trade and Economic Development comprehensively explores the components of the EPA from all angles explains how the agreement provides opportunities to strengthen and accelerate economic development and outlines the policies which can allow the CARIFORUM countries to seize these opportunities Bernal s explanation of the institutional arrangements for the conduct of the negotiations by CARIFORUM is invaluable to governments and regional organizations in developing countries for coordinating groups to advance common and joint positions in international negotiations Sustainable Island Tourism Patrizia Modica,Muzaffer Uysal,2016-12-19 Tourism continues to grow and as the industry develops it is important for researchers and practitioners to fully understand and examine issues such as sustainability competitiveness and stakeholder quality of life in tourism centres around the world Focusing on the unique perspective of island tourism destinations this book outlines impacts on and potential strategies for protecting the natural environment local economy and local culture A timely and important read for researchers students and practitioners of tourism this book also provides a valuable resource for researchers of sustainability and environmental science Coping with the Collapse of the Old Order: Kenneth Hall,Myrtle Chuck-A-Sang,2013-02-19 On July 4 2009 the region celebrated thirty six years as a formal Caribbean Community CARICOM The analyses contained in this publication in the The Integrationist Series all tend to suggest that CARICOM now more than ever needs to transform its experiences over these years into a more structured foundation for maximising the multiplier effects of collective representation and for leveraging CARICOMs diplomatic efforts and resources in a more coordinated and integrated manner This imperative is necessitated by the rapidly changing international environment which has far too often impacted negatively on small developing countries leaving them increasingly vulnerable and marginalized

International Business Blunders Densil A. Williams, 2019-02-19 This book will provide empirical evidence of blunders committed by firms from small developing countries that operate in developed country markets It will identify lessons that managers who are looking to do business in international markets can learn in order to lessen the mistakes in markets that are psychically distant

Caribbean Imperatives Kenneth O. Hall, Denis Benn, 2005 With the launch of the CARICOM Single Market and Economy and the Caribbean Court of Justice the Caribbean Community has taken major steps to promote closer and more intensive forms of economic cooperation among its constituent members This effort requires the adoption of innovative approaches to regional governance and creative regional development strategies aimed at maximizing the exercise of sovereignty within the Community and also optimizing the development possibilities of the region The 30th anniversary of the establishment of the Caribbean Community in 2003 marked an important milestone in the historical evolution of regional integration in the Caribbean

Caribbean Imperatives focuses on several important topics relevant to the future of the community by addressing issues such as the conception of the Caribbean Community integration theory the exercise of sovereignty the Single Market and Economy production integration the external relations of the community and the importance of multilateralism for the viability of small states in the international system The analysis contained in the volume is extremely relevant to policy makers in the region in managing the transition to more intensive forms of regional integration aimed at improving the well being of the people of the Caribbean

Walker, 2018-02-14 The ACADEMY OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS UK and Ireland Chapter Published in association with the UK and Ireland Chapter of the Academy of International Business This brand new edited collection addresses the growing uncertainty and socio economic challenges of globalisation and its profound implications for the strategies and operations of multinational enterprises MNEs Responding to the new balance in international business the authors offer valuable insights into the co evolutionary processes involved in headquarters subsidiary relationships the need for novel strategies by MNEs to retain competitive advantage improve performance and contribute to the global economy

Jamaica Human Development Report ..., 2005 Multinational Corporations and Global Poverty Reduction Subhash C. Jain, Sushil Vachani, 2006 Argues that multinational corporations have contributed and can continue to contribute enormously to the reduction of global poverty

Barbados Liliana Rojas-Suárez, 2006 CARICOM Kenneth O. Hall, Myrtle Chuck-A-Sang, 2010 In CARICOM Policy Options for International Engagement the contributors bring a wealth of experience and knowledge in putting forward the critical questions policymakers must consider and answer in charting the course and laying the framework for this coordinated structure and foreign policy plan Divided into four sections the volume firstly presents the perspectives that corroborate the need for collective action The second section focuses on the emerging powers and the need for South to South Cooperation while the third section discusses the external trade negotiations and the impact of the loss of EU preferences and subsidies the EPA and trade negotiations in the WTO and the new CARICOM US trade relations In the fourth and final section the volume is rounded out by an examination of the kind of cooperation that is needed first at the regional level to sustain economic development The need for harmonisation of fisheries policies and the prevention of maritime degradation the preservation of the environment and the need to reverse the effects of climate change the need for a cohesive regional security policy and a viable air transportation industry as well as the legal framework to implement multilateral treaties are all examined as imperative to CARICOM s development of a coordinated regional foreign policy plan

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004 Revista mexicana del Caribe,2004 Corporate Management in Developing Countries Alvin G. Wint,1995-08-15 Managers in developing countries whether operating in the private or public sectors are constantly aware of the problems of underdevelopment Effective management of international business activities in developing countries can improve the competitiveness and development prospects of these countries and in turn the companies operating within them But to do so managers need a developing country perspective on international trade agreements international finance foreign exchange and national financial management These topics as well as practical chapters on the management of export production financing exports government export programs and international investment make this very valuable reading for executives and those interested in international business

Enhancing Competitiveness in Small Developing States Robert A Stoddard,2024-08-15 This book is designed to help students practitioners and policy makers gain an understanding of the existential challenges that confront small developing states that have resulted in several economic fallouts to the extent that some countries have experienced the demise of many of their traditional industries It also presents a compendium of approaches tools and policies that can assist in resolving some of the lingering challenges faced by these countries It is envisaged that these approaches will invariably increase their competitiveness and thereby contribute to economic growth The book also analyzed the policy and regulatory environment in several small developing states and has developed approaches that are critical to strengthening the institutional capacity in support of the SME sector This is an imperative in their quest to become more productive and competitive and thereby create opportunities for sustained economic growth Emanating from a regional study of the industrial status in the CARICOM Member States it proposes new and revised approaches to public policy on many development issues The book is replete with insights inspiring real life cases and offers alternative approaches to development
