Cities Under Siege:

Cities Under Siege Stephen Graham, 2011-11-01 Cities are the new battleground of our increasingly urban world. From the slums of the global South to the wealthy financial centers of the West, Cities Under Siege traces the spread of political violence through the sites, spaces, infrastructure, and symbols of the world's rapidly expanding metropolitan areas. Drawing on a wealth of original research, Stephen Graham shows how Western militaries and security forces now perceive all urban terrain as a conflict zone inhabited by lurking shadow enemies. Urban inhabitants have become targets that need to be continually tracked, scanned, and controlled. Graham examines the transformation of Western armies into high-tech urban counterinsurgency forces. He looks at the militarization and surveillance of international borders, the use of security concerns to suppress democratic dissent, and the enacting of legislation to suspend civilian law. In doing so, he reveals how the New Military Urbanism permeates the entire fabric of urban life, from subway and transport networks hardwired with high-tech command and control systems to the insidious militarization of a popular culture corrupted by the all-pervasive discourse of terrorism.

Cities Under Siege Stephen Graham, 2008     BESIEGED John Bowyer Bell, 1966     CITIES UNDER SIEGE: MASS CASUALTY URBAN TERRORISM ASSAULTS. Ahmed S. Hashim, 2022     Rituals of Memory in Contemporary Arab Women's Writing Brinda Mehta, 2007-04-26 This volume carefully assesses fixed notions of Arab womanhood by exploring the complexities of Arab women's lives as portrayed in literature. Encompassing women writers and critics from Arab, French, and English traditions, it forges a transnational Arab feminist consciousness. Brinda Mehta examines the significance of memory rituals in women's writings, such as the importance of water and purification rites in Islam, and how these play out in the women's space of the hammam (Turkish bath). Mehta shows how sensory experiences connect Arab women to their past. Specific chapters raise awareness of the experiences of Palestinian women in exile and under occupation, Bedouin and desert rituals, and women's views on conflict in Iraq and Lebanon, and the compatibility between Islam and feminism. At once provocative and enlightening, this work is a groundbreaking addition to the timely field of modern Arab women's writing and criticism and Arab literary studies.

Besieged J. Bowyer Bell, 2006-02-01 J. Bowyer Bell's Besieged is built on the premise that as long as men have constructed walls, other men have tried to scale them. From ancient Jericho and Joshua's trumpet to London and the onslaught of the Luftwaffe, people have always devised cunning weapons with all the skills at their command to breach such barriers and invade the camps and fortified places of their enemies. Besieged is the story of seven great modern sieges: Madrid in the Spanish Civil War, London, Warsaw, Singapore, and Stalingrad in World War II, Berlin during the Post-World War II Airlift, and Jerusalem under Arab attack from four sides in 1947. Bell, a veteran historian, describes in detail the actual battles involved, clearly demonstrating the universality of sieges and siegecraft, and showing that all these beleaguered places have things in common and obey certain basic laws or principles. Bell points out commonalities, showing, for example, though no bullets were fired during the Berlin Airlift, the city itself was as much under siege as was Warsaw.

where the Polish Underground fought a fierce but hopeless battle against Hitler's Wehrmacht. By the same token Bell shows though no German infantry ever came close to London it was nonetheless besieged by aerial squadrons just as surely as Stalingrad was by both German and Russian ground forces. The histories of these sieges are ones of heroism and cowardice, meticulous planning and incredible blunders, all of which can be studied and used even currently in similar situations in either defending or piercing the defenses of a location in times of unrest or war. Beseiged is a must read for those interested in modern conflict, pondering the enigma of human endeavor in wall building and breaking involved in siegecraft. A must read for everyone from military strategist aficionados and historians to science and technology buffs. If it is to be believed the danger of not knowing history is the possibility of unknowingly repeating it then Beseiged should appear on all required reading lists. J. Bowyer Bell, 1931-2003 was professor of International Relations at Columbia University and president of International Analysis Center focusing on problems of unconventional law, terrorism, deception and crisis management.

Cities Under Siege Steve Graham, 2008-01 Explores the links between urbanism and militarisation in the post Cold War world. Stephen Graham is Professor of Human Geography at the University of Durham and Deputy Director of the Centre for the Study of Cities and Regions. A Critical Political Economy of the Middle East and North Africa Joel Beinin, Bassam Haddad, Sherene Seikaly, 2020-12-22 This book offers the first critical engagement with the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa. Challenging conventional wisdom on the origins and contemporary dynamics of capitalism in the region, these cutting edge essays demonstrate how critical political economy can illuminate both historical and contemporary dynamics of the region and contribute to wider political economy debates from the vantage point of the Middle East. Leading scholars representing several disciplines contribute both thematic and country specific analyses. Their writings critically examine major issues in political economy, notably the mutual constitution of states, markets and classes, the co-constitution of class, race, gender and other forms of identity, varying modes of capital accumulation and the legal, political and cultural forms of their regulation, relations among local, national and global forms of capital, class and culture, technopolitics, the role of war in the constitution of states and classes and practices and cultures of domination and resistance.
