Citizenship Education in Small States: Trinidad and Tobago Pat Ellis, 2002 Identity and diversity in all its forms present major challenges to countries seeking to best equip citizens with the skills to participate effectively in their diverse societies This investigation into citizenship education in Trinidad and Tobago produced information about the type nature and variety of programs being offered the topics covered in these programs the approaches and methodologies being used and the groups that participate in the programs It also highlighted the fact that government and civil society organizations are involved in citizenship education Additionally the investigation provided opportunities for individuals and organizations to identify the challenges of being a citizen in the multi ethnic multi cultural and multi religious society of Trinidad and Tobago Participation in the search conference which collected information for the study provided opportunities for individuals and organizations to share concerns about their work Primary data were collected in a questionnaire given to organizations in the sample in meetings and in face to face and telephone interviews Among the concerns and issues identified and discussed were values identity difference and diversity inequalities citizenship and the good citizen democracy and governance the socio economic situation and its impact on citizens the ideology and structure of the education system and the content delivery evaluation and impact of citizenship education programs A list of participants at the Search Conference is appended

BT Citizenship Education in Commonwealth Countries Tristan McCowan, Sonia Gomez, 2012 Assesses the role that citizenship education can play in developing respect and understanding It outlines the concept of citizenship its multiple orientations and the complexities of promoting political visions through education Handbook of Civil Society and Social Movements in Small States Lino Briguglio, Michael Briguglio, Sheila Bunwaree, Claire Slatter, 2023-02-22 This volume is unique because of its focus on small states There are many studies on civil society and social movements but none that specifically deal with this category of countries As is well known small states have particular characteristics including a limited ability to reap the benefits of economies of scale a high degree of exposure to forces outside their control and the proximity of politicians to the voters often leading to clientelistic relationships and patronage networks The small island developing states have the additional problem of high environmental vulnerability with some also dealing with disproportionate ecological footprints These factors have a bearing on the organization and performance of civil society organizations and social movements as explained in several chapters of this book The volume is organized in three parts dealing with aspects of civil society and social moments in small states in the political social and environmental spheres respectively Various definitions of civil society are proposed in the chapters but most authors associate the term with organized groups operating in the interest of citizens independently of government and commercial business including various forms of non governmental organizations NGOs Civil society also encompasses social movements which are considered to be loosely organized collective campaigns in pursuit of social goals These two terms are sometimes used interchangeably however some authors argue that social movements tend to engage in contentious politics including protests while NGOs engage through more organized and institutional routes Citizenship Education in Small States Pat Ellis,2002 Identity and diversity in all its forms present major challenges to countries seeking to best equip citizens with the skills to participate effectively in their diverse societies The project on Citizenship education in the Commonwealth is one of the followup activities being undertaken by the Commonwealth Secretariat in response to a mandate from Commonwealth Heads of Government and Ministers of Education It is a component of the Secretariat s education programme examining how values are transmitted in society These books focus on the outcomes of this project in the respective countries providing valuable insights into the strengthening of values in a society They set out the strategies and actions needed to support small states wishing to promote the values of good citizenship Small States: Economic Review and Basic Statistics, Volume 20 Commonwealth Secretariat,2018-04-23 Small States Economic Review and Basic Statistics is a flagship publication of the Commonwealth Secretariat highlighting the development indicators of small states and disseminating knowledge on their economic performance This milestone 20th volume looks back at the progress of small states over the past 25 years It also takes stock of the Commonwealth Secretariat s contribution to the international discourse on small states and the development of the states themselves Citizenship Education in Small States Una M. Paul,2002 Identity and diversity in all its forms present major challenges to countries seeking to best equip citizens with the skills to participate effectively in their diverse societies The project on Citizenship education in the Commonwealth is one of the follow up activities being undertaken by the Commonwealth Secretariat in response to a mandate from Commonwealth Heads of Government and Ministers of Education It is a component of the Secretariat s education programme examining how values are transmitted in society These books focus on the outcomes of this project in the respective countries providing valuable insights into the strengthening of values in a society They set out the strategies and actions needed to support small states wishing to promote the values of good citizenship Diversity and Citizenship Education James A. Banks,2006-12-22 The increasing ethnic racial cultural religious and language diversity in nations throughout the world is forcing educators and policymakers to rethink existing notions of citizenship and nationality To experience cultural democracy and freedom a nation must be unified around a set of democratic values such as justice and equality that balance unity and diversity and protect the rights of diverse groups Diversity and Citizenship Education Global Perspectives brings together in one comprehensive volume a group of international experts on the topic of diversity and citizenship education These experts discuss and identify the shared issues and possibilities that exist when educating for national unity and cultural diversity Diversity and Citizenship

Education Global Perspectives presents compelling case studies and examples of successful programs and practices from twelve nations discusses problems that arise when societies are highly stratified along race cultural and class lines and describes guidelines and benchmarks that practicing educators can use to structure citizenship education programs that balance unity and diversity The book covers a broad range of issues and includes vital information on such topics as Migration citizenship and education The challenge of racialized citizenship in the United States The contribution of the struggles by Indians and Blacks for citizenship and recognition in Brazil Crises of citizenship education and ethnic issues in Germany Russia and South Africa Conflicts between religious and ethnic factions Diversity globalization and democratic education

Comparative and International Education David Phillips, Michele Schweisfurth, 2014-03-13 This revised and updated second edition of Comparative and International Education An Introduction to Theory Method and Practice provides a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the key themes definitions and approaches in this important field It covers the history theory and methods of comparative and international education as well as the relationship with education and national development and outlines what we can learn from comparative studies Clear explanations are complemented with examples of real research in the field including work on policy borrowing learner centred pedagogy and university internationalization
