City Architecture And Municipality In Postwar Europe:

Photography, Reconstruction and the Cultural History of the Postwar European City Tom Allbeson, 2020-11-16
Examining imagery of urban space in Britain France and West Germany up to the early 1960s this book reveals how photography shaped individual architectural projects and national rebuilding efforts alike Exploring the impact of urban photography at a pivotal moment in contemporary European architecture and culture this book addresses case studies spanning the destruction of the war to the modernizing reconfiguration of city spaces including ruin photobooks about bombed cities architectural photography of housing projects and imagery of urban life from popular photomagazines as well as internationally renowned projects like UNESCO's Paris Headquarters Coventry Cathedral and Berlin's Gedächtniskirche This book reveals that the ways of seeing shaped in the postwar years by urban photography were a vital aspect of not only discourses on the postwar city but also debates central to popular culture from commemoration and modernization to democratization and Europeanization This book will be a fascinating read for researchers in the fields of photography and visual studies architectural and urban history and cultural memory and contemporary European history

The Reconstruction in Europe After World War II Carlo Maria Olmo, 1993     The Capital of Europe Carola Hein, 2004-12-30
What makes up a capital city In this first comprehensive look at the architectural and urban visions for a European capital Hein examines how these visions compare to the reality of the three headquarter cities for the European Union Strasbourg Luxembourg and Brussels Tracing the history of the EU and its creation of the new political entity of the polycentric capital Hein explores the impact that European unification has on visionary projects and the transformation of EU member cities Widely researched the book also brings in architectural projects that have remained largely unknown until now Using architectural and urban history as a lens Hein examines the past five decades of European unification Also analyzed for the first time are the debates plans projects and constructions both realized and failed that accompanied this process Looking to the future Hein asserts that the task of these three capital cities is to balance the needs of a collective Europe with national local and increasingly regional demands
