The City in Slang Irving Lewis Allen,1995-02-23 The American urban scene and in particular New York s has given us a rich cultural legacy of slang words and phrases a bonanza of popular speech Hot dog rush hour butter and egg man gold digger shyster buttinsky smart aleck sidewalk superintendent yellow journalism breadline straphanger tar beach the Tenderloin the Great White Way to do a Brodie these are just a few of the hundreds of popular words and phrases that were born or took on new meaning in the streets of New York In The City in Slang Irving Lewis Allen traces this flowering of popular expressions that accompanied the emergence of the New York metropolis from the early nineteenth century down to the present This unique account of the cultural and social history of America s greatest city provides in effect a lexicon of popular speech about city life With many stories Allen shows how this vocabulary arose from city streets often interplaying with vaudeville radio movies comics and the popular songs of Tin Pan Alley Some terms of great pertinence to city people today have unexpectedly old pedigrees Rush hour was coined by 1890 for instance and rubberneck dates to the late 1890s and became popular in New York to describe the busloads of tourists who craned their necks to see the tall buildings and the sights of the Bowery and Chinatown The Big Apple itself since 1971 the official nickname of New York appeared in the 1920s though first in reference to the city s top racetracks and to Broadway bookings as pinnacles of professional endeavor Allen also tells fascinating stories behind once popular slang that is no longer in use Spielers for example were the little girls in tenement districts who danced ecstatically on the sidewalks to the music of the hurdy gurdy men and when they were old enough frequented the dance halls of the Lower East Side Following the trail of these words and phrases into the city s East Side West Side and all around the town from Harlem to Wall Street and into the haunts of its high and low life The City in Slang is a fascinating look at the rich cultural heritage of language about city life Annual Report of the American Museum of Natural History for the Year American Museum of Natural History,1910 Includes list of members Channeling the Future Lincoln Geraghty,2009-04-02 Though science fiction certainly existed prior to the surge of television in the 1950s the genre quickly established roots in the new medium and flourished in subsequent decades In Channeling the Future Essays on Science Fiction and Fantasy Television Lincoln Geraghty has assembled a collection of essays that focuses on the disparate visions of the past present and future offered by science fiction and fantasy television since the 1950s and that continue into the present day These essays not only shine new light on often overlooked and forgotten series but also examine the look of science fiction and fantasy television determining how iconography location and landscape special effects set design props and costumes contribute to the creation of future and alternate worlds Contributors to this volume analyze such classic programs as The Twilight Zone Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea and The Man from U N C L E as well as contemporary programs including Star Trek The Next Generation Angel Firefly Futurama and the new Battlestar Galactica These essays provide a much needed look at how science fiction television has had a significant impact on history culture and society for the last sixty years The Business Almanac ,1911 The Lincoln Library of Essential Information ,1929 The Creative Destruction of Manhattan, 1900-1940 Max Page,1999 Page investigates these cultural counter weights through case studies of Manhattan s development with depictions ranging from private real estate development along Fifth Avenue to Jacob Riis s slum clearance efforts on the Lower East Side from the elimination of street trees to the efforts to save City Hall from demolition The Public ,1913 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1975 The Story of the Volunteer Fire Department of the City of New York George William Sheldon,1882 The New Practice and Procedure in the Municipal Court of the City of New York Under the Municipal Court Code (Laws of 1915, Chap. 279) with a Treatise on the Practice in Summary Proceedings and a History of the Municipal Court, Also Tables, Forms and Index Edgar Jacob Lauer,1922 Delhi Véronique Dupont,Emma Tarlo,Denis Vital,2000 Bringing Together The Work Of Indian And European Academics And Activists Working In The Domains Of Anthropology Demography Geography Architecture Photography History And Political Science The Book Would Be Of Interest To Anyone Keen To Move Beyond Stereotyped Representations Of India S Capital State Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1896 Buffalo City Directory ,1893 Historical papers are prefixed to several issues The City of Detroit, Michigan, 1701-1922 Clarence Monroe Burton,1922
