Citizen McCain Elizabeth Drew, 2002 The most original the most sought after politician in America today Senator John McCain is at the forefront of a large movement people who are dissatisfied with the way politics is conducted in this country They are eager for change and McCain's independence and his vigorous leadership have inspired them In this narrative replete with McCain's unusual candor and his unorthodox ways we see how this war hero turned political leader is showing the public and cynical Washington insiders that there are other ways to go about working for the public good BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Making of Barack Obama Matthew Abraham, Eric Smith, 2013-10-01 The Making of Barack Obama The Politics of Persuasion provides the first comprehensive treatment of why Obama's rhetorical strategies were so effective during the 2008 presidential campaign during the first four years of his presidency and once again during the 2012 presidential campaign The Fieldston Guide to American History for Cynical Beginners Jim Cullen, 2005-03 Are You a Cynical Beginner You may not have a Ph D in history but you already know or can readily believe that Columbus didn't exactly discover America Or that the man who wrote the Declaration of Independence was a slaveholder Or that our leaders may not be entirely committed to the effort to make sure that in fact no child is left behind But the truth of individual lives can be more compelling than they initially appear surprising informative and maybe even inspiring This book explores a few such lives and the lessons they offer in ways that might actually mean something outside a classroom These biographical case studies which include General George Washington who was once invited to lead a military coup against the new American government Ida Wells who responded to lynchings by publicly mocking the manhood of those who murdered African Americans and Eugene Debs who chose to go to jail to protect free speech explore a series of questions How does one keep true to one's principles in the face of social pressure What strategies work best in addressing your opponents Can public acts atone for private flaws In different ways the profiles in courage here provide answers to these questions not definitive answers but real ones You can weigh them accept them reject them or who knows maybe even apply them You may not end up any less cynical after leafing through this book But you will be less of a beginner Disenchanting Citizenship Luis F. B. Plascencia, 2012-07-04 Central to contemporary debates in the United States on migration and migrant policy is the idea of citizenship and as apparent in the continued debate over Arizona's immigration law SB 1070 this issue remains a focal point of contention with a key concern being whether there should be a path to citizenship for undocumented migrants In Disenchanting Citizenship Luis F B Plascencia examines two interrelated issues U S citizenship and the Mexican migrants position in the United States The book explores the meaning of U S citizenship through the experience of a unique group of Mexican migrants who were granted Temporary Status under the legalization provisions of the 1986 IRCA attained Lawful Permanent Residency and later became U S citizens Plascencia integrates an extensive and multifaceted collection of interviews ethnographic fieldwork ethno historical research and public policy analysis in examining efforts that promote the acquisition of citizenship the teaching of citizenship classes and naturalization ceremonies Ultimately he unearths citizenship s root as a Janus faced construct that encompasses a simultaneous process of inclusion and exclusion This notion of citizenship is mapped on to the migrant experience arguing that the acquisition of citizenship can lead to disenchantment with the very status desired In the end Plascencia expands our understanding of the dynamics of U S citizenship as a form of membership and belonging History of Columbiana County, Ohio and Representative Citizens William B.
