21st Century Weapons Proliferation Are We Ready:

Twenty-First Century Weapons Proliferation James M. Ludes, Henry Sokolski, 2014-01-14 Leading US security practitioners from the Ford Carter Reagan Bush and Clinton administrations plus other experts on proliferation clarify the weapons proliferation threats that the US and its allies will face and suggest what new policies their governments should consider

Twenty-First Century Weapons Proliferation James M. Ludes, Henry Sokolski, 2014-01-14 Leading US security practitioners from the Ford Carter Reagan Bush and Clinton administrations plus other experts on proliferation clarify the weapons proliferation threats that the US and its allies will face and suggest what new policies their governments should consider

NATO Enters the 21st Century Ted Galen Carpenter, 2013-02-01 NATO's military intervention in Yugoslavia highlights the choices and problems confronting the alliance as it approaches the new century An alliance created to keep Western Europe out of the Soviet orbit during the Cold War has sought to reinvent itself as a crisis management organization to suppress conflicts on Europe's periphery and perhaps beyond Is NATO suited to playing such a role or is the alliance a Cold War anachronism How will Russia react to an enlarged NATO focused on out of area peacekeeping and conflict prevention missions Are there alternative security institutions that might better address Europe's security needs in the post Cold War era

Strategy in the Contemporary World John Baylis, James J. Wirtz, Colin S. Gray, 2013 The fourth edition of this successful textbook has been revised and updated in light of recent events and includes a new chapter on the rise of cyberpower Its comprehensive coverage of issues of war and peace such as terrorism intelligence and weapons of mass destruction makes it the major strategic studies textbook in the field

Nuclear Proliferation A. M. Babkina, 2002 Since the nuclear genie was let out of the bottle nuclear weapons have been the exclusive domain of a select few countries At the dawn of the next millennium however the notion that small countries and even a few individuals many acquire and use them or threaten to is a major concern This annotated bibliography presents citations of the current book and journal literature which deal with this dangerous issue Access is provided through subject author and titles indexes

Best of Intentions Henry D. Sokolski, 2001-04-30 Although the United States efforts to prevent the spread of strategic weapons have varied significantly since 1945 they all presumed to be avoiding one or another type of strategic war To the extent their military scenarios were sound so too were the nonproliferation remedies these initiatives promoted But as Sokolski demonstrates the obverse was also true when these initiatives military hopes and fears were mistaken their nonproliferation recommendations also missed their mark What is the best hope for breaking out of this box and securing a higher rate of nonproliferation success The United States must base nonproliferation policies less on insights concerning strategic military trends and more on the progressive economic and political trends that have increased the number of relatively peaceful prosperous liberal democracies For the proliferating nations that are exceptions to this trend the U S and its allies need to devise ways of competing that will encourage these governments to expend more energies shoring up their weaknesses and eventually giving way to less militant regimes A major resource for students and military professionals interested in arms control and international relations Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2003 Falling Behind Henry D. Sokolski,2008 If possible it would be useful to enhance the International Atomic Energy Agency s ability to detect and prevent nuclear diversions This would not only reduce the current risk of nuclear proliferation it would make the further expansion of nuclear power much less risky The Comprehensive Guide to International Law Marc Cogen,2008 Cogen international law Ghent U Belgium presents an overview of the history and current status of international law Chapters discuss the sources of international law the history of international law states and territories the rights and responsibilities of states the global commons international organizations the individual diplomatic and consular law the law of treaties and the laws regarding armed activities The focus of the work is on the straightforward presentation of the principles and rules of international law in these key areas Pakistan's Nuclear Future Henry D. Sokolski,2008 This volume was completed just before Pakistani President Musharraf imposed a state of emergency in November 2007 The political turmoil that followed raised concerns that Pakistan s nuclear assets might be vulnerable to diversion or misuse This book which consists of research that the Nonproliferation Policy Education Center NPEC commissioned and vetted in 2006 and 2007 details precisely what these worries might be Choice ,2001 Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields ,2002 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001-06 Defense Analysis for the 21st Century Reiner K.
