Consumer Australia Robert Crawford, Kim Humphery, Judith Smart, 2010-06-09 Donald Horne's The Lucky Country claimed that Australia was one of the first nations to find part of the meaning of life in the purchase of consumer goods Significantly similar views had been expressed in the late 18th century where everyday life in the antipodean outpost of Empire was regarded as being pecuniary and acquisitive in nature While references to Australia as a consumer society continue to be made the question of how Australia came to be so has attracted less attention The chapters in Consumer Australia actively redress this omission by examining the ways in which the processes of selling buying and exchanging have characterised the experiences of consumption in every day Australian life Prepared by leading and emerging scholars the chapters in this unique collection critically explore the different ways that Australians have consumed products brands and even consumption itself from the 19th century and through the 20th century By charting the growth and development of consumption in Australia Consumer Australia reveals how Australia came to be a consumer society and asks where it is headed

From Superwomen to Domestic Goddesses Natasha Campo, 2009 This book examines the rise and fall of feminism in the public imagination in the last twenty years and explains why feminism failed me has become the catch cry of a generation Today many women turn their back on feminism because they feel betrayed by the promises of feminism Yet during the 1980s the popular ideal of the Superwoman offered a source of empowerment and pride for women and equality with men even having it all seemed possible Through a close reading of popular culture sources this book shows how women's engagement with feminism has shifted over time and considers its future as a social movement

Brown and Black Communication Diana Rios, Ali Mohamed, 2003-07-30 Though Latinos and African Americans have lived together in large cities as neighbors there is much that is still misunderstood between them Those who live in non diverse locales have only news and entertainment representations on which to base their information about the two cultures This new collection of essays brings together the latest interdisciplinary works by scholars examining conflicts and convergences among Latinos and African Americans in mass mediated and cross cultural contexts Contributions in the form of both empirical and critical ethnographic research present compelling works in cross cultural relations news entertainment news media education and community relations IBrown and Black Communication R challenges those who do not think that significant projects and key research have been conducted on the two largest ethnic communities in the United States Of certain appeal to both scholars and those with more applied needs in media education and public policy this challenging collection offers a range of perspectives on two widely diverse bodies of American people The Club Woman's Magazine ,1925 Woman's World ,1926 American Federalism: A Concise Introduction Larry N. Gerston,2015-03-26 Understanding federalism the form of political organization that unites separate polities within an overarching political system so that all maintain their political integrity is central to the study of democratic government in the United States Yet many political scientists treat federalism as a set of abstract principles or a maze of budgetary transfers with little connection to real political life This concise and engaging book boils the discussion down to its essence federalism is about power specifically the tug for power among and within the various levels of government Author Larry N Gerston examines the historical and philosophical underpinnings of federalism the various change events that have been involved in defining America s unique set of federal principles over time and the vertical horizontal and international dimensions of federalism in the United States today The result is a book examining the ways in which institutional political power is both diffused and concentrated in the United States Woman's World ,1937-07 Cook Book of the Woman's Educational Club ,1914 The Young Woman's Journal ,1918 Woman's Home Companion ,1919 Mighty Minutes Jim Hall,1984 Includes index A historical overview of TV s bestloved commercials over the past thirtyfive years Woman's Institute Library of Cookery: Fruit and fruit desserts, canning and drying, jelly making, preserving, and pickling, confections, beverages, the planning of meals ,1924 Maternity Nursing Deitra Leonard Lowdermilk,Shannon E.
