Theology and Ecology in Dialogue Dermot A. Lane,2020-05-21 This book opens with an examination of the meaning of the innocent sounding category of Integral Ecology in contemporary thought and its significance for theology today According to well known Irish theologian Dermot Lane Integral Ecology changes everything In this book he focuses on the neglected implications of Integral Ecology for systematic theology Ecology challenges theology to reimagine who we are who the Spirit of God is who Christ is where creation is going and what is the role of liturgy in society all in the glare of the ecological crisis This book also mines the theology within and behind the ground breaking encyclical Laudato Si On Care for our Common Home Until fairly recently climate change was left to the scientists politicians and activists More is needed Now is the time to hear voice of religion in that debate in the public forum with a view to initiating new transformative practices in society in politics and in religions This new book will be of interest to activists politicians priests christian educators and theologians The book is born out of the conviction that climate change is not just one more problem to be addressed by politicians rather it is the challenge facing humanity in the 21st century and as such is the challenge underlying all other challenges at this moment in history

Pentecost and Parousia Peter D. Hocken,2013-10-23 As the charismatic movement penetrated the Protestant churches and then impacted the Catholic Church great hopes for Christian unity were aroused among many These hopes peaked with the great Kansas City conference of 1977 and the Pentecost over Europe gathering in Strasbourg France in 1982 After these high points the Renewal s unity dynamic weakened at the same time as the ecumenical movement was losing momentum Dr Hocken argues that the charismatic movement was always a grace for unity and that this can be seen from how it began and spread Its deep orientation to unity finds its foundation in the end times significance of baptism in the Spirit poured out on Christians from so many traditions that reinforces the one hope for the coming of the Lord Many developments of the last twenty years indicate that the time is now ripe for an ecumenism of the Spirit within which the charismatic impulses of the Holy Spirit can purify and deepen the wider movement for Christian unity Growing reconciliation between Evangelicals and Catholics suddenly seems less utopian as Pope Francis shows the servant face of a humbler Catholic Church Congress Volume Zurich 2022 ,2025-10-20 This volume presents the main lectures of the 24th Congress of the International Organization for the Study of the Old Testament IOSOT held in Zurich Switzerland in August 2022 It is written by nineteen established international scholars whose combined research reflects the broad spectrum of contemporary biblical scholarship The volume includes articles ranging from the study of the ancient Near East the archaeology of ancient Israel and Judah and the Dead Sea Scrolls via thematic investigations and ideological readings of key texts to studies exploring the formation ideology and reception of biblical books Liturgy and the Social Sciences Nathan Mitchell,1999 Christian ritual Roman Guardini believed is not the contemplative act of an individual but the public deed of an assembly a community gathered in faith and prayer in obedience to Jesus command Can people and presiders today relearn this communal way of doing Can they learn to read ritual acts simply by doing them by performing them without being self conscious theatrical and fussy Over the past forty years Christian liturgists have sought to reinterpret ritual s multiple meanings by transplanting insights from the social sciences sociology anthropology Have the transplants worked This book tries to answer that question Back cover

Lectionary Worship Workbook Amy C. Schifrin,2001 If you want to make your Sunday morning services come alive this remarkably inventive volume is exactly what you ve been searching for It s a terrific library of resources that takes the weekly lectionary texts and puts them into the mouths ears and hearts of the people For each week there s a complete selection of written liturgical material calls to worship litanies prayers and benedictions to supplement and strengthen your worship planning all specifically tailored to the day s scripture readings But that s not all There s also a wealth of musical suggestions including hymns chosen from a wide variety of denominational hymnals psalm settings and appropriate anthems for the choir You ll even find ideas that draw upon the other creative arts dance art drama to glorify God and enhance worship This is an outstanding exegesis of prayer praise and thanksgiving and Schifrin s fertile imagination produces practical worship material that engages the congregation and encourages active participation Amy C Schifrin the Seminary Pastor and Dean of the Chapel at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley California has been a parish pastor in Saskatchewan Arizona North Dakota South Dakota and California She holds a master s degree in music theory and composition from Northwestern University and an M Div degree from Luther Northwestern Seminary Schifrin is currently a Ph D candidate in the Arts Worship and Proclamation at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley Her other published works include hymns and psalm settings as well as articles and book reviews in Currents Word and World Dialog and The Lutheran Martha Shonkwiler is currently studying Art Therapy in the post masters certificate program at Sonoma State University and the Spiritual Direction diploma program at San Francisco Theological Seminary to strengthen her emphasis of Healing through Art and Spirituality She is a recent graduate of Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary where she earned her

M A degree in Christian Ministry A former elementary schoolteacher Shonkwiler has participated on mission trips to Indonesia and El Salvador and has also been active in ministry to the Hmong community in Fresno California

Engraved Upon the Heart Hwarang Moon,2015-07-17 How does liturgy impact the formation of faith The Protestant Church has traditionally emphasized human reason and doctrinal knowledge But there is another method with great formative power participation in liturgy Human beings gain important knowledge not only through traditional cognitively focused learning but also through practice and participation And because knowledge is wholistic an inability to express an idea in language does not necessarily signify an absence of knowledge This book shows how liturgy transmits knowledge that transcends human reason We repeat the liturgy in weekly public worship and its contents are inscribed on our minds and bodies Contrary to common belief this is also true for children and cognitively challenged individuals They may be unable to verbally express the contents of their faith in a way that satisfies normal adult expectations but these two groups of people are capable of rich religious experiences This book explores how welcoming them into experience and practice of worship and sacrament can benefit children cognitively challenged church members their families and the church community as a whole and makes us all a more inclusive community in Christ
