

Leadership Styles Questionnaires

There are different leadership styles, each of which can be appropriate and effective in different situations. Most of us, if we find ourselves in a leadership role, have a preference for a particular style. This questionnaire is designed to help you think about your preferences. Please read each statement and tick the appropriate box, indicating what you think is true for you.

		Exactly like me (2)	Mostly like me (3)	A bit like me (4)	Not me at all (5)	Score
1	I believe teams work best when everyone is involved in taking decisions
2	I am good at bringing out the best in other people
3	I can take on leadership role when needed, but do not consider myself as a 'leader'
4	I am happy to act as the spokesperson for our group
5	I am good at adapting to different situations
6	I am determined to push projects forward and get results
7	I think people should be allowed to make mistakes in order to learn
8	I enjoy working on committees (different groups/teams)
9	I think the most important thing for a team is the wellbeing of its members
10	I can see situations from many different perspectives
11	I do not mind how long discussions last, so long as we consider every angle
12	I am good at organising other people
13	I think all team members should abide by formal decisions, so long as we follow proper procedures
14	I set myself high standards and expect others to do the same for themselves
15	I enjoy role playing exercises
16	I love helping other people to develop

Once you have ticked one box for each of the statements, please note the score for each question in the right-hand column

In the table below, add scores for listed combinations of questions and total this for your Leadership Style Preference.

Question Numbers	Scores (List your score for each question)				Total	Leadership Style Preference
4, 6, 12, 14						Authoritative
1, 8, 11, 13						Democratic
2, 7, 9, 16						Facilitative
3, 5, 10, 15						Situational
