25 New Nigerian Poets:

25 New Nigerian Poets Toyin Adewale-Gabriel, 2000 Poetry African Studies With the publication of 25 NEW NIGERIAN POETS Ishmael Reed's publishing company continues its commitment to new and politically relevant writers In the introduction Toyin Adewale writes that the literary renaissance joyfully announced by Harry Garuba in his introduction to VOICES FROM THE FRINGE the anthology of 100 young Nigerian poets published in 1988 is today non-existent The intervening decade between 1999 and now was burdened by the military regimes of General Ibrahim Babangida and General Sanni Abacha The decade beheld the betrayal of our political will the annulment of the June 1993 elections the murder of human rights and political activists including the former president of the Association of Nigerian Authors Ken Saro Wiwa Nevertheless because lack of publishing avenues is one of the starkest results of this turmoil Adewale finds a sliver of hope in the existence of this very book which she calls an appetizer to further reading in Nigerian lit Critical Engagements on African Literature Abba A. Abba, Benedictus C. Nwachukwu, 2019-09-24 Beyond the critical examination of Isidore Diala's award-winning poetry and drama the essays in this collection offer fresh insights on the complex methodological and theoretical patterns underlying the readings of African literary landscapes This is the first book to devote considerable attention to the study of Diala's creative works The Pyre drama and The Lure of Ash poetry The majority of the contributors here are selected from among the finest of Diala's former teachers colleagues and students who know him very closely The collection addresses fertile areas of African literary expression such as the relationship between literature and national history African ritual aesthetics affirmation denial and ambivalence as products of social constructions and exile migration and home coming Contributions also explore poetry and poetic truths semiotics anticolonial revolutions and postcolonial implosions oil politics discontent and militancy and feminism and gender politics The book stands out among its peers and offers great insights to scholars researchers and teachers working in the fields of African literature cultures and aesthetics
