32 Third Graders And One Class Bunny:

32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny Phillip Done, 2009-09 Now in paperback to tie in with the publication of Phillip Done's new hardcover Close Encounters of the Third Grade Kind from Center Street 32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny brings the joys and terrors of elementary school back to life The Washington Times Phil Done has taught elementary school for twenty years He fixes staplers that won't staple zippers that won't zip and pokes pins in the caps of glue bottles that will not pour He has sung Happy Birthday 657 times 32 Third Graders and One Class Bunny is for anyone who has ever taught children or been to third grade This collection of tightly written connected essays is an unexpected pleasure an absolute joy Tucson Citizen and a testament to the kids who uplift us and the teachers we will never forget With just the right mix of humor and wisdom Done reveals the enduring promise of elementary school as a powerful antidote to the cynicism of our times

The Art of Teaching Children Phillip Done, 2023-07-18 After more than thirty years in the classroom award winning teacher Phil Done decided that it was time to retire His days of teaching schoolchildren may have come to an end but a teacher's job is never truly done and he set out to write the greatest lesson of his career a book for educators and parents that would pass along everything he learned about working with kids The result is this delightful and insightful teaching bible The Art of Teaching Children From the first day of school jitters to the last day's tears Done writes about the teacher's craft classrooms and curriculums the challenges of the profession and the reason all teachers do it the children

Navigating the Labyrinth Shirley Ann Smith, 2022-06-04 In spite of millions of dollars spent on professional development for teachers the dream of providing every child with the great teacher they deserve always seems just out of reach With each new education product and innovation promising to transform teaching and learning the myth of a silver bullet to cure education's ills is perpetuated But the silver bullet is already in the classroom the teacher Every teacher has the ability to transform their practice if he or she is willing to look inside themselves to make the changes necessary By using methods described in Navigating the Labyrinth Teacher Empowerment Through Instructional Leadership educators can establish a metacognitive process for how they recognize what beliefs they have about how students learn how they approach research so that it drives instructional decisions and how they design and deliver instruction that ensures student learning at the highest level This process is the foundation of effective pedagogy Daily practice of these methods can establish a standard of professionalism that inoculates teachers against the everchanging shiny things in the profession and enable them to become strong instructional leaders

Schooling, Childhood, and Bureaucracy T. Waters, 2012-09-24 In exploring the relationship between bureaucratic schooling and the individual child Waters describes the persistence of educational inequality child development and the nature of bureaucracy The conclusions point out how education bureaucracies frame both schooling and childhood as they relentlessly seek to create ever more perfect children
