33 Minnesota Poets:

33 Minnesota Poets Nodin Press, 2000 33 Minnesota Poets provides a convincing overview of the region's poetic culture. The poems included in this anthology suggest that Minnesotans are wonderfully caring about their interior landscapes. The poems themselves at times colorful, severe, luminous, and lush are as various as the seasons. The One who Swears You Can't Start Over Ethna McKiernan, 2002

Poems celebrating the joys of marriage, falling in love, proposing, the wedding ceremony, intimacy, milestones, children, anniversaries, the mystery of another's differences, and staying in love. Proposing on the Brooklyn Bridge Ginny Lowe Connors, 2003

Driving to Heaven Tracy S. Youngblom, 2010 Susan Fenimore Cooper Rochelle Johnson, Daniel Patterson, 2001. Collected here are detailed and diverse essays, some that examine Rural Hours, Susan Fenimore Cooper's most famous work, and others that help establish Cooper as a major practitioner and theorist of American nature writing and as a socially engaged artist in many other genres. These essays discuss Cooper's uses and manipulations of various literary conventions, such as the picturesque, the literary village sketch, and domestic fiction, and illuminate her positions on conservation, religion, and woman's place in society. The engaging collection is divided into four sections. The first features essays examining Cooper's work in light of her relationship with her famous literary father, James Fenimore Cooper, and their devotion to and cultivation of each other's careers. The second focuses on Cooper's fascination with landscape and its relation to her environmental philosophies. Rural Hours is the subject of the third section, which presents new readings on its subtly crafted authorial stance, its two complementary conceptions of time, and its revaluation of rural and scientific ways of knowing. The collection concludes with four works whose insights into Cooper's views on gender, domesticity, and environmental philosophy grow out of comparisons with several contemporary women writers. These remarkable essays, by both established and emerging scholars of nineteenth-century literature, present new findings and insights into a writer who is being reintroduced.
