Days with Charbel Makhlouf Elias Maroun Haddad,365 Days Press,2025-12-29 A year of silence surrender and hidden holiness one quiet day at a time 365 Days with Charbel Makhlouf Silence Surrender and the Fire of Hidden Holiness is a contemplative devotional journey shaped by the life and spirit of one of the most hidden and radical saints of modern Christianity Far from dramatic visions or emotional spirituality this book invites the reader into a slow faithful interior path where prayer is stripped of excess and trust deepens in silence Saint Charbel lived almost entirely unseen in obedience austerity and prayer carried out far from the world s attention Yet from that hidden life flowed a spiritual power that continues to draw seekers across traditions This book does not attempt to explain Charbel or imitate his externals Instead it accompanies the reader day by day into the same interior posture remaining surrendering trusting and staying faithful without reward Written in a sober meditative tone each daily entry offers space rather than instruction guidance without pressure depth without emotional manipulation It is a book for those who are tired of noise performance and spiritual urgency and who sense that God works most deeply where life is quiet repetitive and unseen In this book you will find A full year of daily reflections inspired by the hidden life and spirituality of Saint Charbel Makhlouf A path of prayer grounded in silence endurance obedience and interior freedom Daily meditations that resist clich s and avoid sentimental or motivational spirituality A steady companion for readers seeking depth sobriety and faithfulness in ordinary days This is not a book to rush through It is meant to be lived slowly one day at a time allowing the reader to remain where they are without comparison urgency or spiritual performance About the Author 365 Days Press in collaboration with Elias Maroun Haddad Elias Maroun Haddad is a Lebanese born contemplative writer and spiritual editor whose work explores silence hidden holiness and the interior life within the Eastern Christian tradition Drawing deeply from the Maronite spiritual heritage and the witness of Saint Charbel Makhlouf he writes with a restrained meditative voice shaped by monastic sources desert spirituality and lived prayer His work seeks to accompany readers not through instruction or exhortation but through steady presence simplicity and fidelity to the unseen work of God in ordinary days
