Raffaela Di Napoli

3 Coffins For Nino Lencho:

Three Coffins for Nino Lencho Armando B. Rico, 1987 Two Arizona men need to take their godfather's body to Mexico to be buried and they do so through unofficial channels so as to bypass the fees that a Mexican tradition would require of them Comical fast moving fiction the novel begins in the United States and ends deep in the interior of Mexico The story looks at Mexico not through the eyes of the sunbathing tourists in Acapulco but with the clear vision of two bright resolved colorful characters struggling across the back roads of a mysterious land They breathe drama into every page with an unbelievably bizarre theme that though delicate to handle in a novel touched every human being at some station in life
