BALTIMORE, MD.

The Jewish Hospital Training School,
St. Louis, Mo.

I take pleasure in certifying to Miss Beatrice Samberger's fitness for matriculation in the Jewish Hospital Training School of St. Louis. In fact I should have been prepared to certify to her worthiness of enrollment as a student in any similar institution. I have known Miss Samberger for certainly fifteen years, and my estimate of her is based on personal experience and not on hearsay. Miss Samberger's antecedents are the best. There is an unimpeachable character. The education she received in this city was pursued by her with earnestness, indefatigability and success. She has always pleased those for whom she did work, no matter what the work happened to be. I was fortunate enough to have her in the Faculty of my Religious School for one year. She severed her connection with this School at the regret of everybody connected with the same, only ten days ago. As a teacher she knew not only how to impart knowledge, but also how to win the affection and confidence of her pupils. Her temperament ought to make her an exceptionally good nurse, when she has completed her training.

I give this estimate of Miss Samberger's worthiness, not because I am asked to certify, but because I experience a keen pleasure in having the opportunity of recommending her as a token of my appreciation of her labors.

Sincerely,

8th Instance Of June 1914
