Advertising Graphics:

Graphic Design as Communication Malcolm Barnard, 2013-07-04 What is the point of graphic design Is it advertising or is it art What purpose does it serve in our society and culture Malcolm Barnard explores how meaning and identity are at the core of every graphic design project and argues that the role and function of graphic design is and always has been communication Drawing on a range of theoretical approaches including those of Derrida Saussure Foucault and Barthes and taking examples from advertising magazines illustration website design comics greetings cards and packaging Graphic Design as Communication looks at how graphic design contributes to the formation of social and cultural identities Malcolm Barnard discusses the ways in which racial ethnic groups age groups and gender groups are represented in graphic design as well as how images and texts communicate with different cultural groups He also explores how graphic design relates to both European and American modernism and its relevance to postmodernism and globalisation in the twenty first century and asks why when graphic design is such an integral part of our society and culture it is not acknowledged and understood in the same way that art is ICGG 2018 - Proceedings of the 18th International Conference on Geometry and Graphics
