Affirming Diversity Through Democratic Conversations:

Affirming Diversity Through Democratic Conversations Victoria R. Fu, Andrew J. Stremmel, 1999 This collection of essays and personal reflections is written from a social constructivist perspective and proposes practices that promote democratic conversations regarding diversity by creating opportunities to share personal stories and to listen to other people's stories. It examines policies and practices that can either empower or stifle understanding in different situations and presents stories to serve as catalysts to promote democratic conversations and multicultural understanding in various contexts. Focuses on feminist and micro interaction issues. Features authentic stories told in the author's own voice which paints a picture that is sometimes challenging, sometimes difficult to hear but always meant to stimulate conversations with self and others to deconstruct and reconstruct personal notions of diversity. Presents information from a social constructivist view to support the belief that affirming diversity is an ongoing process of evaluating and reconstructing knowledge through social discourse and interactions. Addresses important questions such as: How can we build bridges and connections without being able to talk across differences and How can we affirm diversity when selected views are allowed to be voiced while others are silenced. For educators, counselors, and social workers. Reflections on Equity, Diversity, & Schooling Maria Pacino, 2007-10-29 Equity, diversity, and social justice are the values to which global democracies aspire. These elements have strong implications for our children and their schools. They are truly timely issues for all educators. The experiences of the author as a teacher, mother, and immigrant are woven throughout the text. This work is a compilation of essays that address the issues of schooling in relationship to diversity and literacy in pluralistic democracies. The essays offer theoretical perspectives, suggestions for practice, and useful resources to ensure an equitable education for all children. This book encourages educators to reflect on their role as agents of change in schools and advocates of social justice. Tough Love - Power, Culture and Diversity In Negotiations, Mediation & Conflict Resolution Allan Bonner, 2014-11-03 Barter with the author on the Great Wall of China, do a business deal over lunch in the Eagle's Nest in the Hong Kong Hilton, and mediate among millionaire developers in the office of the longest serving mayor in the world. Join the author in his recounting of cases he's handled over the past twenty years, including same-sex sexual harassment, oil spill simulations after the Exxon Valdez spill, and on the green line with peacekeepers in Cyprus. These entertaining case studies are recounted using proven and ethical techniques. Some cases are funny, others involve life and death. All contain valuable lessons. Academics will benefit from the appendices which contain a glossary of terms and guidance for ethnographers. A 19-page bibliography and more than 140 endnotes will guide readers to further study. The Handbook of Critical Intercultural Communication Thomas K. Nakayama, Rona Tamiko Halualani, 2011-03-21 The Handbook of Critical Intercultural Communication aims to furnish scholars with a consolidated resource of works that highlights all aspects of the field, its historical inception, logics, terms, and possibilities. A consolidated resource of works that highlights all aspects of this developing field, its historical inception, logics, terms and possibilities Traces the significant historical developments in intercultural communication Helps students and scholars to revisit assess and reflect on the formation of critical intercultural communication studies Posits new directions for the field in terms of theorizing knowledge production and social justice engagement Catalytic Conversations Ann C. Baker, 2015-05-18 In today's increasingly globalized world it is essential that people of diverse ethnicities and socio-economic backgrounds learn to work together and communicate effectively This book offers a breakthrough approach to recognizing that differences among people are resources for organizations to tap as they strive to anticipate change and adapt rapidly in an unpredictable world Catalytic Conversations provides a conceptual framework for understanding how complex communication patterns of social networks influence and are influenced by organizational structures It discusses how to enhance the quality and viability of groups and organizational life by paying attention to how people talk and do not talk to each other The book distinguishes between conversations that support organizational enhancement and others that inhibit innovation and explores the complexity of organizational communication in detail Poverty and Schooling Sue Books, Valerie Polakow, 2001-10-01 This is a special issue of Educational Studies Volume 32 No 3 from 2001 Its main focus is poverty and schooling with two guest editors that have been deeply involved in research and teaching on the problem of children in poverty for many years and bring their considerable expertise to this excellent collection of scholarship and reviews Talking Leaves Suzanne SooHoo, 2006 This book represents a 6 year collection of student narratives on otherness The purpose is to determine from adult accounts what forms of otherness were experienced by school aged children and young adults in school The narratives were shared orally and students identified common threads and differences The project culminated in multicultural lessons that equipped aspiring teachers with knowledge and skills to address conditions of prejudice social alienation and inequities Culture and Counseling Frederick D.
