Afghanistan, Iran, and Pakistan Human Rights Watch (Organization),2002 The Human Rights Watch report Closed Door Policy Afghan Refugees in Pakistan and Iran cautions against a hasty repatriation of Afghan refugees while conditions in Afghanistan remain unstable Human Rights Watch interviewed many refugees including members of various ethnic groups and women and girls who fear continuing human rights abuses inside Afghanistan The decades long Afghan refugee emergency did not end with the fall of the Taliban There remain three and a half million refugees in Pakistan and Iran the vast majority of whom arrived before the current armed conflict Although one hundred forty thousand Afghans went home from Pakistan and Iran in the past six weeks fifty thousand new refugees fled Afghanistan to Pakistan during the same time period Refugees interviewed by Human Rights Watch in Pakistan described the human toll caused by that government's treatment of the refugee population With borders closed most refugees had to resort to dangerous and unofficial routes into Pakistan Refugees were beaten at unofficial checkpoints when they could not afford to pay extortionate bribes At official crossing points families were beaten back or languished in squalor without food water or latrines hoping to be let in Once inside Pakistan refugees were harassed and imprisoned because they lacked identity documents They also endured beatings by Pakistani police when queuing for food in camps Publisher website The Interception of Vessels on the High Seas Efthymios Papastavridis,2014-08-28 The principal aim of this book is to address the international legal questions arising from the right of visit on the high seas in the 21st century U.S. Counternarcotics Operations in Afghanistan United States. commander in chief He controlled the flow of thousands of tons of arms across Pakistan and into its occupied neighbor arms that were bought with CIA and Saudi Arabian funds from the USA One of the Mujahideen s close allies was none other than Osama Bin Laden This compelling book was put together with great skill the by military historian Mark Adkin in conjunction with Brigadier Mohammad Yousaf and is essential reading for anyone interested in the truth behind the Afghanistan War which led to the conditions that exist there today A hardback edition of this book was published by Casemate in 2001 under the title Afghanistan The Bear Trap The Afghan Wars Archibald Forbes,1896 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide The Afghan Wars, 1839-42 and 1879-80 Archibald Forbes,1892 History of the Panjáb from the Remotest Antiquity to the Present Time Syad Muhammad Latif,1891 History of the War in Afghanistan Sir John William Kaye,1874 History of the Panjáb Muhammad Latif,1891 The Afghan War of 1879-80 Howard Hensman,1881 The History and Geography of Afghanistan and the Afghan Campaigns of 1838-9 and 1842 H. F. Walker,1881 This book is a brief history of Afghanistan and its relations with the British Empire It was published in London in 1881 as Parliament and the British public were debating policy toward Afghanistan in the aftermath of the Second Anglo Afghan War which was fought between 1878 and 1880 The author Philip Francis Walker was a London barrister who had recently served with the British army in Afghanistan and the book contains vivid accounts of fierce fighting with the Afghans In a typical passage Walker describes the Afghan tribesmen as being in great strength fighting very courageously and being well led The most interesting aspect of the book is the summary in the concluding pages of the debate underway in Britain about future policy toward Afghanistan According to Walker three main plans were under discussion 1st That we should annex the whole country including Herat 2nd That we should settle some chief or chiefs in the country as securely as possible and ourselves retire behind the scientific frontier with or without Candahar 3rd That we should evacuate most of the country and continue to hold almost the same frontier between British India and Afghanistan as hitherto Walker generally favored the second option but the third was in fact followed by the Liberal government of Prime Minister William Gladstone
