she wrote for The New York Times in her freshman year of college and sent her a letter that changed her life Reviewers called her book shameless and powerful and its author was simultaneously reviled and cheered With what some have viewed as shocking honesty Maynard explores her coming of age in an alcoholic family her mother s dream to mold her into a writer her self imposed exile from the world of her peers when she left Yale to live with Salinger and her struggle to reclaim her sense of self in the crushing aftermath of his dismissal of her not long after her nineteenth birthday A quarter of a century later having become a writer survived the end of her marriage and the deaths of her parents and with an eighteen year old daughter of her own Maynard pays a visit to the man who broke her heart The story she tells of the girl she was and the woman she became is at once devastating inspiring and triumphant Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences (U.S.),1902 List of papers contained in v 1 9 is given in National Academy of Sciences Proceedings Index 1915 24 1926
