At Home On Earth:

At Home on the Earth David Landis Barnhill, 1999-08-05 The physical earth is clearly under unprecedented siege heated toxified scraped But almost as if they were antibodies the finest nature writers of any era have come forward to help in the fight This anthology collects many of the most important at their most eloquent May it ring and echo and do some good Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature This is a stunning collection of vivid writing about landscapes and the people who inhabit them The diverse narratives gathered here do more than describe hawks diving and twigs snapping although the book has its share of moving accounts of the natural world A concern to live responsibly in nature runs through this evocative anthology like a subterranean stream and that moral impulse together with the lively prose makes this the best collection of nature writing I've seen Thomas A Tweed editor of Retelling U S Religious History At Home on this Earth Lorraine Anderson, Thomas S. Edwards, 2002 The first chronological presentation of U S nature writing by key women authors of the last two centuries Earth Friends at Home Francine Galko, 2004 Discusses the importance of reducing waste recycling and reusing products in the context of life at home Home, School, and Community, 1924 Journal of motives in education and public welfare Finding Home: Earth, Sky, Ocean, Spirit Carol Thomas, 2012-01-30 About The Book Finding Home Earth Sky Ocean Spirit This book of poems new and selected has been years in the making Nearing a seventieth decade one is reminded of Leonard Cohens admonition to make a record of ones life Adrienne Rich suggests that one finds the deepest truths of a womans life in her poetry poetry that draws from and illuminates her autobiography Its language is precocious and uncanny in its efforts to explicate the nature of her lived experience I have taught creative writing in a number of contexts with troubled adolescents in colleges and universities in a womens prison and with patients and clients in my own private practice in New London Connecticut It was always the journaling that revealed and explicated the individuals trauma and allowed them to move to what might be called a quotidian delight which they had not been able to find before that life might hold a quotidian ecstasy was a new and wondrous idea to them and one they could find access to The earth sky ocean spirit and their own embodied and ensouled selves were the means to their own connectedness to the universe Human language began with womans singing her music her natural response to giving life and perceiving the plenitude around her A mother murmuring vowels and consonants soft language of warmth comfort and tenderness There is reason to believe that at one time on the island of Crete long ago there was a woman centered culture in which the values of nurturing living in harmony with the natural world using a language that emerged from this matrix Warriors came the earlier culture was destroyed and the language reflected the new and violent warring culture The new patriarchal lexicon focused on the lived experience of the men It concerned power victory defeat and death It was literal denotative as opposed to connotative it was didactic hierarchical and dismissive of the language and life of the womans perspective It would seem that in contemporary American culture the exclusion of what we might call poetic language that is language that expresses the truth and affects of the human being has become obsolete replaced by patriarchal language ubiquitous in the political violence of the day and the seeming waning of what we thought was an American way of life These poems attempt to illuminate a woman's experience of her world They further attempt to suggest the need for Whitman's notion of the need for an increasingly capacious imagination Perhaps men are not from Mars and women from Venus Adrienne Rich suggests there is hope for a common language more in harmony with the truth reality and ambiguity of the natural world And perhaps after all even with the angst and anxiety of living in this world we are all poets soul searching people all of whom experience quotidian ecstatic moments of the pure joy of living mystery and incomprehensibility bringing delight and clarity affirming and confirming the wondrous miracle of our lives

Embracing the Track of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within At Home On Earth

In a global used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous transmission, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony produced by the published word frequently disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and distractions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of At Home On Earth a marvelous literary prize filled with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching analysis, we can discover the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
