At Isella

Mrs. Alfred Gatty

At Isella:

At Isella Henry James, 2021-04-11 In At Isella Henry James explores the intricacies of human relationships set against the backdrop of a serene Italian villa. The novella is imbued with James's characteristic attention to psychological nuance, presenting a delicate interplay of love, social convention, and personal aspiration. Written in the late 19th century, the text reflects the author's stylistic evolution, featuring rich descriptions and a complex narrative structure that invites readers to dissect the subtleties of each character's motivations and emotional landscapes. The lush Mediterranean setting serves to heighten the thematic exploration of beauty and desire, forming a vivid contrast to the characters' internal conflicts. Henry James, an American expatriate who spent much of his life in Europe, often grappled with issues of identity, perception, and culture clash in his works. His experiences navigating the differences between American and European sensibilities deeply informed his storytelling, particularly in At Isella, where the delicate balance of social propriety and individual longing comes to the fore. As a prolific author, James's insights into the human psyche are both profound and relatable, offering readers a glimpse into his thoughts on intimacy and social facades. This novella is recommended for anyone interested in the complexities of relational dynamics and the interplay between place and perception. James's sophisticated prose and keen observations provide a timeless reflection on love and personal fulfillment, making At Isella an essential read for lovers of literary fiction and keen observers of the human condition. Stories Vol. 1 1864-1874 (LOA #111) Henry James, 1999-08-30 A dignified and impressive addition to your bookshelf that reveals James's virtuoso performance in a genre he helped to define, refine, and elevate. The Commercial Appeal. This Library of America volume, the first of five of Henry James's short fiction, brings together his first twenty-four published stories, thirteen never collected by James. Encompassing a wide range of subjects, settings, and formal techniques, they show the first explorations of some of James's most significant themes: the force of social convention and the compromises it demands; the complex and often ambiguous encounter between Europe and America; the energies of passion measured against the rigors of artistic discipline. By his mid-twenties, James was a regular contributor to the most prestigious and popular magazines of his era. He is equally at ease writing historical tales such as Gabrielle de Bergerac, a love story set in pre-Revolutionary France, as he is exploring contemporary events as in the three stories that treat the effects of the American Civil War on civilians James's psychological acuity is already evident in Master Eustace a study of the ruthlessness of a spoiled child and in Guest's Confession where the comic portrayal of an arrogant businessman hints at his cruelty and self absorption In The Romance of Certain Old Clothes and The Last of the Valerii James begins to work with the supernatural and fantastic motifs that would continue to surface in his work Early examples of James's lifelong fascination with art and artists include A Landscape Painter about a young painter's attraction to a seemingly simple family living in a desolate coastal town and The Madonna of the Future where an aging artist avoids the unveiling of his masterpiece Adumbrating later triumphs and compelling in their own right these stories reveal and accomplished and cosmopolitan young talent mastering the art of the short story LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries The Central Alps John Ball,1873 University of Illinois Studies in Language and Literature ,1930 The Will to Live (Les Roquevillard) Henry Bordeaux,1915 The Central Alps: Including the Bernese Oberland, Etc John Ball,1882 The Pass of St. Gothard and the Italian Lakes John Ball,1873 The Alpine Guide.
