At The Interface The Household And Beyond:

At the Interface David B. Small, Nicola Beth Tannenbaum, 1999 Co published with Society for Economic Anthropology SEA this volume takes a unique approach to the study of economics Rather than concentrating on a defined analytical unit it explores economics from the interface That is it examines the various kinds of relationships that can exist among and within economic units in a community and beyond The chapters treat the theme of the interface from four different perspectives intracommunity interfaces interfaces and the organization of communities extracommunity interfaces and the question of interfaces in archaeological investigations The authors address various topics related to household economy including the creation of different identities through shared labor the dialectical relationship between global forces and local producers in structuring economic contexts strategies that promote economic flexibility and environmental adaptation Beyond the Multiplex Barbara Klinger, 2023-09-01 Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary entertainment technologies and media from cable television and VHS to DVD and the Internet shape our encounters with the movies and affect the aesthetic cultural and ideological definitions of cinema Barbara Klinger explores topics such as home theater film collecting classic Hollywood movie reruns repeat viewings and Internet film parodies providing a multifaceted view of the presentation and reception of films in U S households Balancing industry history with theoretical and cultural analysis she finds that today cinema s powerful social presence cannot be fully grasped without considering its prolific recycling in post theatrical venues especially the home Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary enterta Beyond Experiments in Development Economics J. Edward Taylor, Mateusz J. Filipski, 2014 This book provides researchers students and practitioners with a methodology to evaluate the impacts of a wide diversity of development projects and policies on local economies Projects and policies often create spillovers within project areas LEWIE uses simulation methods to quantify these spillovers It has become a complement to randomized control trials RCTs as governments and donors become interested in documenting impacts beyond the treated comparing the likely impacts of alternative interventions and designing complementary interventions to influence program and policy impacts It is also a tool for impact evaluation where RCTs are not feasible Chapters 1 4 motivate and present the basics of impact simulation including how to design a LEWIE model how to estimate the model and how to obtain the necessary data The remaining chapters provide a diversity of interesting real world applications and extensions of the basic models The applications include evaluations of the impacts of cash transfers for the poor ecotourism global food price shocks irrigation projects migration and corruption Each chapter provide readers with the tools they need to conduct their own local economy wide impact evaluations All models and data used in this book

The book challenges the current formal approaches and practices to modern planning in Indonesia where many kampungs are classed as illegal and excluded from city plans. Beyond informality unpacks via three case studies the self-generated planning and development arrangements and mechanisms which occur parallel to processes of formal exclusion, adaptation, negotiation and modification. Kampungs are posited as inseparable urban entities contributing to the complex assemblage of the city and the dynamics of contemporary urban planning and design. In the context of planning and design practice, this book provides a better understanding on how one needs to consider human-scale urbanism to achieve more effective and efficient planning plans and policies in the self-organized city. Even though self-organization by residents comes with its challenges as outlined in the book, formal planning in both Indonesia and other developing countries has much to learn from understanding self-organized settlements, kampung and informal settlements as they are.      The House Beyond the Hill Michael R. Collings, 2007-04-01 THE EVIL THAT FEEDS ON FEAR The quiet suburb seems peaceful enough until loner Donny Mann succumbs to the irresistible urge to Drive the web of the Southern California freeways armed with a stolen 38 and the unspeakable need to fire it. He finds his victims soon enough an old black Cadillac alone on a dark stretch of highway. Three people witness the shooting. Three people see the Caddy crash. Three people know that no one left the wreck. But when the police arrive they find the car empty of anything save blood and the horror locked in its trunk. One after another the citizens of Tamarind Valley fall prey to something or some thing that feeds on fear and grows exponentially in power with each victim. Donny's brother Richard gradually realizes that he stands at the center of an expanding circle of evil. If he and his friends do not prevail the evil will. MICHAEL R. COLLINGS has written and edited over forty books of horror, literary criticism and poetry among others many of them being reprinted by Borgo Press. He lives and works in Idaho.      The Mosuo -- Beyond the Myths of Matriarchy Eileen Rose Walsh, 2001      Beyond the Canebrakes Emily Allen Williams, 2008 15 essays and two interviews that examine the work of West Indian writers living in Canada. The authors of these essays and interviews dissect issues of history, gender, power, identity and levels of discourse in moving scholars, researchers and students into arenas of study and critique of the West Indian Woman writer residing in Canada.      Beyond the City David M. De Ferranti, World Bank, 2005 The rural economy's contribution to development: summary of findings and policy implications. The rural contribution to development: analytical issues. The rural contribution to development: policy issues.      Beyond the Revolution Maggie Toy, 1996      HCI Beyond the GUI Philip Kortum, 2008-04-25 Traditional interfaces rely on graphic depictions and sight to convey information and respond to the user. These are known as graphical user interfaces (GUIs). But designers must meet the challenge of designing new and creative interfaces that adapt to meet human needs on every level of the five senses.

Beyond Relief Luca Alinovi, Günter Hemrich, Luca Russo, 2008 In many countries prolonged conflicts result in food emergencies that recur over years or even decades Initial humanitarian relief efforts are rarely replaced by programs that offer a longer term perspective on food security This book provides examples of opportunities to bridge the gap between emergency relief and longer term developmental approaches which can help us rethink how to support food security in protracted crises Somalia Sudan and the Democratic Republic of Congo have all been affected by severe protracted crises For the first time evidence and in depth analysis from these countries sheds light on how to support the livelihoods of local populations Using concrete examples Beyond Relief demonstrates how food security means different things in different contexts while also advocating a crosscutting learning process for longer term approaches to protracted crisis

Beyond Boundaries Gisli Palsson, 1993 Anthropology it is often argued is an art of translation Recently however social theorists have raised serious doubts about the translator s enterprise Over the last few years the human social and ecological habitat has seen spectacular developments Modern humans inhabit a global village in a very genuine sense What lessons may be learned from these developments for anthropology In Beyond Boundaries ten anthropologists from different countries address the problem of social understanding and cultural translation from different theoretical as well as ethnographic perspectives Quite appropriately given the general theme of the volume the contributors represent several different academic traditions and communities Britain Finland France Iceland Israel Japan Norway the former Soviet Union and Sweden

At The Interface The Household And Beyond: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. At The Interface The Household And Beyond : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
