Brown v. Board of Education: A Civil Rights Milestone and Its Troubled Legacy James T. Patterson, 2001 Many people were elated when Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered Brown v Board of Education of Topeka in May 1954 the ruling that struck down state sponsored racial segregation in America's public schools Thurgood Marshall chief attorney for the black families that launched the litigation exclaimed later I was so happy I was numb The novelist Ralph Ellison wrote another battle of the Civil War has been won The rest is up to us and I'm very glad What a wonderful world of possibilities are unfolded for the children Here in a concise compelling narrative Bancroft Prize winning historian James T Patterson takes readers through the dramatic case and its fifty year aftermath A wide range of characters animates the story from the little known African Americans who dared to challenge Jim Crow with lawsuits at great personal cost to Thurgood Marshall who later became a Justice himself to Earl Warren who shepherded a fractured Court to a unanimous decision Others include segregationist politicians like Governor Orval Faubus of Arkansas Presidents Eisenhower Johnson and Nixon and controversial Supreme Court justices such as William Rehnquist and Clarence Thomas Most Americans still see Brown as a triumph but was it Patterson shrewdly explores the provocative questions that still swirl around the case Could the Court or President Eisenhower have done more to ensure compliance with Brown Did the decision touch off the modern civil rights movement How useful are court ordered busing and affirmative action against racial segregation To what extent has racial mixing affected the academic achievement of black children Where indeed do we go from here to realize the expectations of Marshall Ellison and others in 1954
