The Crisis in Zaire Georges Nzongola-Ntalaja,1986      Real Markets: Social and Political Issues of Food Policy Reform Cynthia Hewitt de Alcantara,2013-10-28 Real Markets Social and Political Issues of Food Policy Reform contains papers presented at a Seminar on Food Pricing and Marketing Reforms sponsored by the United Nations Research Institute for Social Development UNRISD and held in Geneva during November 1989      Crisis of Legitimacy and Political Violence in Uganda, 1979 to 2016 Ogenga Otunnu,2017-08-07 This book the second of two parts demonstrates that societies experiencing prolonged and severe crises of legitimacy are prone to intense and persistent political violence The most significant factor accounting for the persistence of intense political violence in Uganda is the severe crisis of legitimacy of the state its institutions political incumbents and their challengers This crisis of legitimacy which is shaped by both internal and external forces past and present accounts for the remarkable continuity in the history of political violence since the construction of the state      Conflict and Security in Africa Rita Abrahamsen,2013 Spanning the period from the cold war to the war on terror examines the political economy dynamics of security and insecurity on the continent as well as its implications for political actions More than any other part of the globe Africa has become associated with conflict insecurity and human rights atrocities In the popular imagination and the media overpopulation environmental degradation and ethnic hatred dominate accounts of African violence while in academic and policy making circles conflict and insecurity have also come to occupy centre stage with resource hungry warlords and notions of greed and grievance playing key explanatory roles Since the attacks of 9 11 there has also been mounting concern that the continent s so called ungoverned spaces will provide safe havens for terrorists intent on destroying Western civilization The Review of African Political Economy has engaged extensively with issues of conflict and security both analysing on going conflicts and often challenging predominant modes of explanation and interpretation This Review of African Political Economy Reader provides a timely comprehensive and critical contribution to contemporary debates about conflict and security on the continent The first section covers some of the continent s main post Cold War conflicts and demonstrates their global connections The articles also discuss the so called resource curse as well as the global arms trade and reveal the complexities of the relationship between the economic and the political The second section focuses on security as part of post Cold War global governance and discusses the effects of liberal peace building as well as the link between development assistance and the war on terror The final section examines life as it continues in conditions of war and shows how insecurity reconfigures urban space transforms social order identities and authority Rita Abrahamsen is Professor in the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs University of Ottawa Canada Published in association with ROAPE ROAPE African Readers Series Editors Tunde Zack Williams Ray Bush

Changing the Rules Aili Mari Tripp,2023-04-28 Changing the Rules The Politics of Liberalization and the Urban Informal Economy in Tanzania provides a comprehensive examination of Tanzania s informal economy highlighting its critical role as both a survival mechanism and a force for political and economic change Amid the economic crises of the 1980s Tanzanians increasingly turned to informal activities to bridge the vast gap between formal wages and the cost of living This shift not only redefined economic participation but also challenged the statist and socialist frameworks that had dominated Tanzania s post independence policies The book explores how the informal economy reshaped dependencies strengthened grassroots initiatives and exerted pressure on the state to adapt through liberalization and reform The study delves into the socio political dynamics underlying this transformation from the emergence of new economic practices to the state s reluctant acknowledgment of these activities By documenting the interplay between everyday resistance and policy shifts the book reveals how informal economic strategies undermined restrictive state norms and forced significant institutional changes Through chapters that analyze household dynamics gendered economic roles and shifting state society relations the author presents a nuanced picture of how Tanzanians redefined survival and governance This book is essential for understanding how grassroots economic adaptations can drive systemic transformation in developing nations This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1977

Routledge Library Editions: Food Supply and Policy Various,2021-08-29 Reissuing works originally published between 1952 and 1999 this set provides a wide spread of scholarship on issues surrounding food provision throughout the world The earlier books look at import and export changes during times when previous trade routes and options changed while later ones mostly consider food assistance policies poverty and famine and welfare These books cover third world studies economics anthropology politics environment agriculture and population studies as well as food and nutrition

The Reconfiguration of Political Order in Africa Denis Tull,2005 Urban Anthropology and Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development ,1987 African Historical Studies Bogumil Jewsiewicki,1987 African Studies Review ,2002 The Making of Economic Policy in Africa Ravi Gulhati,1990 The main emphasis in this report is on policy determinants and government processes involved in making and implementing economic decisions At issue are the political and economic risks inherent in reforms and what can be done to contain these dangers in the special context of low income Sub Saharan Africa The report will discuss the acuteness of the economic crisis and its causes the determinants of changes in economic policies during the late 1960s and the 1970s and analyzes comparative policy responses of governments of sample countries during the 1980 86 period Further on the report goes on to derive lessons of recent policy history in Africa It then examines the extent to which weaknesses in the technical design of reforms exacerbated problems of implementation The international framework within which economic reforms took place is also examined

Insight ,1992      The Dynamics of Economic and Political Relations Between Africa and Foreign Powers Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo,1999-01-30 International relations at large and Africa s in particular are shaped by the actors historical location by what they offer economically and culturally and by who they are socially In international relations nations tend to deal with objective conditions as they are or as they are perceived However Lumumba Kasongo demonstrates through case studies of Liberia and Zaire Congo that what the objective conditions are may not necessarily be what they ought to be in the national development process The international struggle for power between the West and the East and their supportive brutal and oppressive states in the South especially in Africa created the extremely weak conditions that redefined international relations as the tools of domination rather than the tools of understanding and cooperation As Lumumba Kasongo clarifies Africa did not gain economically or developmentally from this struggle An important work for scholars and researchers of contemporary Africa and international relations in general      ASA News ,1988      Zaire Library of Congress. Federal Research Division,1994 Research completed December 1993      The Heterosexual Transmission of AIDS in Africa Dieter K. Koch-Weser,Hannelore F.
