Mitchell B. Lerner

Crisis Of The Iranian State:

Iran After the Revolution Saeed Rahnema, Sohrab Behdad, 1995-09-15 Nearly a century has passed since the assassination of Austria Hungary's Archduke Ferdinand yet the repercussions of the devastating global conflict that followed echo still In this provocative book historian Ian Beckett turns the spotlight on twelve particular events of the First World War that continue to shape the world today Focusing on episodes both well known and scarcely remembered Beckett tells the story of the Great War from a new perspective stressing accident as much as strategy the small as well as the great the social as well as the military and the long term as much as the short term The Making of the First World War is global in scope The book travels from the deliberately flooded fields of Belgium to the picture palaces of Britain's cinema from the idealism of Wilson's Washington to the catastrophic German Lys offensive of 1918 While war is itself an agent of change Beckett shows the most significant developments occur not only on the battlefields or in the corridors of power but also in hearts and minds Nor may the decisive turning points during years of conflict be those that were thought to be so at the time With its wide reach and unexpected conclusions this book revises and expands our understanding of the legacy of the First World War

Crisis in the Iranian state; domestic, foreign and security policies in post-Khomeini Iran Ahmed Hashim, 1995 The United States and Iran J. Roshandel, Alethia H. Cook, 2009-07-20 Relations between Iran and the US have been strained for over 30 years This book provides unbiased discussions of issues such as historical relations the Iranian nuclear program and their support for terrorist organizations It also identifies a wide range of possible US policy solutions to improve relations

The Crisis of the Iranian State Ahmed Hashim, 1995 From Religious Empires to Secular States Birol Başkan, 2014-03-26 In the 1920s and the 1930s Turkey Iran and Russia vehemently pursued state secularizing reforms but adopted different strategies in doing so But why do states follow different secularizing strategies The literature has already shattered the illusion that secularization of the state has been a unilinear homogeneous and universal process and has convincingly shown that secularization of the state has unfolded along different paths Much however remains to be uncovered This book provides an in depth comparative historical analysis of state secularization in three major Eurasian countries Turkey Iran and Russia To capture the aforementioned variation in state secularization across three countries that have been hitherto analyzed as separate studies Birol Ba kan adopts three modes of state secularization accommodationism separationism and eradicationism Focusing thematically on the changing relations between the state and religious institutions Ba kan brings together a host of factors historical strategic and structural to account for why Turkey adopted accommodationism Iran separationism and Russia eradicationism In doing so he expertly demonstrates that each secularization strategy was a rational response to the strategic context the reformers found themselves in The Crisis of the Iranian State Hashim, United States policy toward Iran United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 2006 United States Relations with China and Iran Osamah F. Khalil, 2019-07-11 Bringing together experts from history international relations and the social sciences United States Relations with China and Iran examines the past present and future of U S foreign relations toward the People s Republic of China and the Islamic Republic of Iran It benefits from recently declassified documents and an interdisciplinary transnational approach to explore different aspects of the relations between these three countries While the 20th century has been referred to as the American Century this book posits that the 21st century will be shaped by relations between the United States and key countries in Asia in particular China and Iran In assessing the United States foreign policy towards China and Iran over the past six decades the chapters focus on several key themes interaction normalization and confrontation The book provides an insight into how and why Washington has developed and implemented its policies toward Beijing and Tehran and examines how China and Iran have developed policies toward the United States and internationally Finally it draws on the insights of leading scholars discussing the future of relations between Beijing and Tehran This interdisciplinary book brings a unique perspective to the international relations of the 20th century and beyond and will benefit students and scholars of U S foreign relations as well as Middle Eastern and East Asian history and politics

Arab-Iranian Relations Khair El-Din Haseeb,2015-06-25 Regionally based Arabs and Iranian scholars here explore the preoccupation of the economic political educational and strategist present of Arab Iranian relationships in the context of the historical and cultural past The issues covered include historical ties and the current state of mutual awareness between Arabs and Iranians the impact of the political and journalistic rhetoric of each side on their relationships the image of Arabs and Iranians in each others schoolbooks economic ties and the prospects for their future development the status of Arab and Iranian women border and territorial disputes between Arab states and Iran the position of Arab states and Iran on the Kurdish question the Palestine question in Arab Iranian relations a comparative study of civil society in Iran and in Arab countries and Arab Iranian ties in the context of international relations
